Russia Blamed For Crisis; 80,000 Chinese Reds Sever Supply Lines And Surround Allied 10th Corps In Korea

Overwhelming Enemy Force Continues Vicious Offensive Assault

Washington, Nov. 30 (AP)—Announced American casualties in the Korean war rose today to 31,028, an increase of 1,032 over a week ago.

Scout, Nov. 30 (AP)—Eighty thousand Chinese Reds on a new offensive attacked United Nations forces in northeast Korea today. A curious lull fell on the frozen bloody battlefronts in the northwest.

Maj. Gen. Edward M. Almond, told war reporters six to 10 Chinese divisions "suddenly confronted" his 10th Corps forces in the northwest.

Lt. Gen. Walton H. Walker's Eighth Army in the northwest was similarly faced with 200,000 Red Chinese at the outset of the Communist offensive last week-end.

American marines and infantrymen around the Changjin reservoir were surrounded in Almond's area. They were battling fiercely but the marine supply route was cut. Intelligence officers said probably six of the divisions mentioned by Almond were in the forward attacking force. Some Red tanks were in use there.

Some Yanks Escape
In the northwest, AP Correspondent Hal Boyle reported after aerial observation that the last American troops protecting the bitter retreat of the U. S. Eighth Army across the icy Chongchon river pulled back safely through flaming Kunu.

Fighter planes strafed Chinese moving toward the town. American vehicles crunched over the frozen road westward toward Anju, coastal communications hub, to join other United Nations forces retreating to a new and sharply constricted line.

An Eighth Army spokesman said wintry quiet prevailed over most of the northwest front throughout Thursday. This was confirmed by Correspondent Boyle who—flying low over the front—could spot no Chinese movements.

Check Red Trap
The lull came after Americans, British and Turks checked Communist efforts to unhinge the right flank and pin the Allies against the Yellow seashore of west Korea.

In the northeast, AP Correspondent Tom Stone reported Chinese in overwhelming force continued their assaults on the U. S. First Marine Division and American infantrymen around Changjin reservoir.

The heaviest fighting was northwest of the reservoir, three miles west of Yudam. Elements of the Fifth and Seventh Marine Regiments were encircled. Also under heavy attack and isolated was the First Regiment, on the south.

Red roadblocks were wedged between the leatherneck regiments and clamped on their 51-mile overland supply route to Hamhung on the east coast.

30 Yards from GI's
On the east side of the reservoir a spokesman said, elements of two U. S. Seventh Division regiments were under "moderate attack," but supplies were reaching them.

Marine and carrier-based U. S. Navy fighters gave the doughboys and leathernecks close support. One night of Marine Corsairs strafed Chinese dug in only 30 yards from the GIs.

Washington, Nov. 30 (AP)—President Truman said today active consideration is being given to use of the atomic bomb against the Chinese Communists if that step is necessary.

The President spoke of this possibility at a news conference in which he also expressed continued hope that a third world war can be averted.

Mr. Truman also made clear he is strongly backing General Douglas MacArthur who has been under some criticism chiefly from abroad.

Fight for Survival

In a statement, the President said that the Chinese Communist attack, made in great force, may lead to further reverses but "the forces of the United Nations have no intention of abandoning their mission in Korea."

He said if the Chinese aggression is successful in Korea, "we can expect it to spread through Asia and Europe to this hemisphere," and added:

"We are fighting in Korea for our own national security and survival."

Need Funds for A-Bombs
Mr. Truman announced he is calling Democratic and Republican Congressional leaders to the White House tomorrow to ask "urgent consideration" for heavy increases in appropriations.

He said the funds to be requested are needed to intensify the military mobilization and speed up the atomic energy program.

The President plainly laid on Russia the responsibility for the Chinese Communist attacks in Korea.

He said:

"We hope that the Chinese people will not continue to be forced or deceived into serving the ends of Russian colonial policy in Asia."

Appealing for unity in this country, Mr. Truman asked all citizens "to lay aside differences" since the United States is "the keystone of the hopes of mankind for peace and justice."

No Chinese Cooperation
He said there is no indication that the Chinese Communist delegation at Lake Success is willing to engage in the normal "peaceful process of discussion and negotiation."

The President said it is necessary for us "to increase at a very rapid rate the combined military strength of the free nations" and that he is ready to appoint a supreme commander in Europe as soon as our Allies can get together on that course.

He said the size and effectiveness of our armed forces will be increased.

There was no reference in Mr. Truman's prepared statement to the atomic bomb.

Quizzed On Bomb

It was in response to questions that he said active consideration is being given to the use

USAF CONCERT DRAWS 2,300

Approximately 2,300 attended the concert presented by the U. S. Air Force band Wednesday at the South Mountain Fair Grounds Memorial auditorium.

Of that number, 1,500 were present, mostly school children, at the afternoon matinee. About 900 attended the evening program. The Air Force band, making its second appearance in Pennsylvania this year, played numbers ranging from symphonic treatment of Beethoven and other "giants" of music to popular renditions of swing and "be-bop."

As a result of the attendance the fair association expects to "break even" on the engagement. The band cost approximately $1,700.

The band was well received, and gave a number of encores in response to the applause.

Arnold Orner, president of the South Mountain Community and Fair association, which sponsored the appearance of the Air Force band at the fair grounds, and which has presented a number of outstanding dance bands, said today that at the present time no further plans are outlined for further activities, similar to the series of band concerts and dances.

JR. RED CROSS GIVES 235 BOXES, $465.91 IN CASH

Adams county school children have contributed $465.91 and 235 gift boxes so far to the Junior Red Cross during the current membership drive.

Of the gift boxes turned in 216 have already been shipped to youngsters overseas, the county Red Cross said today. Gift boxes from the public high schools of the county will be received at a later date for shipment, it was announced.

A number of schools have not yet completed their membership campaigns, among them being Biglerville high school, Littlestown grade school and New Chester grade school.

Other schools that have contributed larger numbers of gift boxes are St. Joseph's academy, McSherrystown, 20 boxes; Meade and High Street schools each 16 boxes; Delone high school, 15 boxes, and St. Joseph's Catholic school, Bonneauville, 14 boxes.

DISPLAY TYPES OF CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS

All types of Christmas decorations were on display at the YWCA Wednesday at the second annual "pre-Christmas" joint meeting held by the various home economics groups of the county.

Miss Mary Jane Mickey, county home economics extension representative, demonstrated the making of candles and other decorative effects at the afternoon and evening sessions attended by 130 members of the various clubs.

Christmas decorations constructed by the Conewago, Alloway, Barlow, Belmont, Progtown, New Oxford, Harrisburg road, Littlestown, Good Hope and Hunt avenue groups were on display, with members of the clubs explaining features of the arrangements.

Little candles can be made into big candles by melting down partially used candles into a can, Miss Mickey pointed out. Wicks are made of heavy cord dipped in wax. She described a method of making white candles from paraffin and gave details of methods of making floating candles for decorations.

Tell How They Spend Xmas

A number of women gave talks on "How We Spend Christmas At Our Homes." Included in the group were Mrs. Herbert Zepp and Mrs. Gilbert Crabill, of the Harrisburg Road club, Mrs. Barry Brammer and Mrs. Melvin Nace of the Conewago group; Mrs. William Lippy and Mrs. Irvin Kindig of the Littlestown club; Mrs. John Swartz of the Barlow group and Miss Ruth Sponseller of the New Oxford club.

Among the unusual customs described was one in which a "treasure chest" is filled with toy gifts, to which are attached jingles. When a group of guests arrive at the home, they pull the strings and their gifts and jingles come out of the treasure chest. Another family, where all of the children are married, has its Christmas dinner and Santa Claus on Christmas Eve and the families then visit the "in-laws" on Christmas, according to the talks given by the women.

Among the decorative effects on display were a gingerbread house and a house made of sugar blocks.

Russia Blamed For Crisis; 80,000 Chinese Reds Sever Supply Lines And Surround Allied 10th Corps In Korea

Overwhelming Enemy Force Continues Vicious Offensive Assault

Washington, Nov. 30 (AP) — Announced American casualties in the Korean war rose today to 31,028, an increase of 1,032 over a week ago.

Seoul, Nov. 30 (AP) — Eighty thousand Chinese Reds on a new offensive attacked United Nations forces in northeast Korea today. A curious lull fell on the frozen bloody battlefronts in the northwest.

Maj. Gen. Edward M. Almond, told war reporters six to 10 Chinese divisions "suddenly confronted" his 10th Corps forces in the northeast.

Lt. Gen. Walton H. Walker's Eighth Army in the northwest was similarly faced with 200,000 Red Chinese at the outset of the Communist offensive last week-end.

American marines and infantrymen around the Changjin reservoir were surrounded in Almond's area. They were battling fiercely but the marine supply route was cut. Intelligence officers said probably six of the divisions mentioned by Almond were in the forward attacking force. Some Red tanks were in use there.

Some Yanks Escape
In the northwest, AP Correspondent Hal Boyle reported after aerial observation that the last American troops protecting the bitter retreat of the U. S. Eighth Army across the icy Chongchun river pulled back safely through flaming Kunu.

Fighter planes strafed Chinese moving toward the town. American vehicles crunched over the frozen road westward toward Anju, coastal communications hub, to join other United Nations forces retreating to a new and sharply constricted line.

An Eighth Army spokesman said wintery quiet prevailed over most of the northwest front throughout Thursday. This was confirmed by Correspondent Boyle who—flying low over the front—could spot no Chinese movements.

Cheek Red Trap
The lull came after Americans, British and Turks checked Communist efforts to unhinge the right flank and pin the Allies against the Yellow seashore of west Korea.

In the northeast, AP Correspondent Tom Stone reported Chinese in overwhelming force continued their assaults on the U. S. First Marine Division and American infantrymen around Changjin reservoir.

The heaviest fighting was northwest of the reservoir, three miles west of Yudam. Elements of the Fifth and Seventh Marine Regiments were encircled. Also under heavy attack and isolated was the First Regiment, on the south.

Red roadblocks were wedged between the leatherneck regiments and clamped on their 51-mile overland supply route to Hamhung on the east coast.

30 Yards from GIs
On the east side of the reservoir a spokesman said, elements of two U. S. Seventh Division regiments were under "moderate attack," but supplies were reaching them.

Marine and carrier-based U. S. Navy fighters gave the doughboys and leathernecks close support. One flight of Marine Corsairs strafed Chinese dug in only 30 yards from the GIs.

FARM NEWS
IN THIS STATE

By JOHN DEITRICK

Harrisburg, Nov. 29 — Pennsylvania's 400 bushel potato club has the distinction of being the oldest agricultural production club in the nation.

The club entered its 35th year with the 1950 potato crop.

Due to quality for membership in the club, a potato grower must produce a potato crop with at least one acre showing a yield of not less than 400 bushels of potatoes.

The Pennsylvania Cooperative Potato Growers association, sponsor of the club, credits it as one of the biggest factors in making the Keystone potato grower conscious of improved methods of growing potatoes. Since the club's inception, a total of 1261 farmers have made the membership grade.

Reports On Fairs Lag

Pennsylvania Fair associations are lagging in submitting annual reports to the State Agriculture department for determination of state aid grants.

Deadline for submission of such reports is December 15.

The Department said that only about a dozen of the county and community fair associations have filed premium reports so far. It added at the home of Mrs. Lotte Dutera and family, South Queen street. Mr. Maus is a professor at the Pennington preparatory school.

Miss Anna Mae Bish, a student at Church Home and Hospital, Baltimore, has returned there after spending several days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Bish, here. Mr. Bish is now attending the funeral of her grandmother, Mrs. Paul Collins, who was buried Monday.

Miss Anna Sneeringer, of Baltimore, spent the Thanksgiving holiday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs.

ed that the longer the fair reports are delayed, the longer all fairers will have to wait for their state funds to aid in payments of premiums on agricultural exhibits.

Lancaster county farmers have a reputation for helping distressed neighbors. Three recent examples: Mrs. Edwin H. Myers and her son, Edward, of Mt. Joy, route 1, were left in difficult circumstances at harvest time when the elder Myers and another son were killed in an auto accident. Friends came to the rescue, harvested 12 acres of tobacco, 14 acres of corn and seeded 27 acres of wheat, as well as helped with the farm chores.

Walter Hershey, of Lancaster, route 6, lost his barn in a farm fire, leaving him no winter storage space. Friends and neighbors from far and near converged on the Hershey farm last Tuesday and put up a new barn.

Elmer Hersh, of Strasburg, Route 1, was ill and unable to harvest his corn crop. Friends learned of his plight and came to his rescue, husking the entire crop in one day.

FAVORS AID FOR SEWAGE PLANTS

Miami Beach, Fla., Nov. 30 (AP)—Governor-elect John S. Fine promises to aid Pennsylvania communities in the construction of sewage disposal plants.

Fine, who is on a working vacation here as the guest of Wilkes-Barre's former state senator, Andrew Sordani, said yesterday it was his desire to continue the present state administration's anti-pollution drive without placing a burdensome financial strain upon communities.

"We will proceed with this phase of the state's clean streams program as rapidly as the financial condition of the state and the affected municipalities permits," fine said.

The governor-elect declined to say how the projects would be financed but it was believed he was considering state loans or, if possible, outright grants.

Fine also announced that Brig. Gen. Richard K. Mellon, Pittsburgh, would be retained as state director of civil defense if he could persuade the general to remain on the job.

Fine praised the general's work and said his only problem was to convince Mellon he should remain on the job.

"He is doing a great public service at a great personal sacrifice," Fine said.

Nina Warren Wins Fight Against Polio

Sacramento, Calif., Nov. 30 (AP)—This is "going home day" for Nina (Honey Bear) Warren—the spunky, 17-year-old daughter of Gov. Earl Warren. In 23 days she has won her battle with polio.

Dr. Junius B. Harris, spokesman for six specialists, reported: "There are no paralyzed muscles in her legs. She will be able to walk and be a normal child again."

Initially Nina was paralyzed from the hips down. When the pretty high school senior was told the good news last night, "her little eyes filled up," Dr. Harris said.

The doctors "were very gratified with her progress. We couldn't have expected better." They had her take a few steps alongside the bed.

Mrs. Warren called that "a very exciting moment."

"We have been very lucky," she said. "And we should have a very happy Christmas."

Another Warren daughter, Dorothy, 19, is recovering from a slightly punctured lung and rib injuries suffered in an auto accident.

JOE LOUIS WINS BY DECISION BUT CROWD IS SLIM

By CHARLES DUNKLEY
Chicago, Nov. 30 (P)—Joe Louis still is wearing boxing gloves, but whether he'll ever use them again in a title bout was as big a question today as ever.

A slim Chicago stadium crowd of 8,866 which saw former heavyweight Champion Louis score a methodical 10-round "comeback" win over Cesar Brion last night, could agree with Joe's admission that "my timing was off."

Louis, as a matter of fact, isn't even talking about a return match with title-holder Ezzard Charles, who gave him a 15-round trouncing at New York last September 27.

Wants More Fights
"I want two or three more fights, and I want them right away," Louis said after his unanimous, but plding decision over Brion, 13 years younger than the no-longer dreaded Brown Bomber. "I want to be in tip-top condition before I even think about Charles."

The International Boxing club, which again took its lumps at the gate because last night's bout was televised, was to confer today over Joe's next foe.

Joe, 36 and weighing 216 pounds, was a shadow of his former stalking, slashing self in the 10th round. He had Brion in trouble with a furious barrage of lefts and rights. The South American weighed 196.

Referee Frank Gilmer voted 56 to 44 for the former champion, while the judges made it 55 to 45 for Louis. Brion was awarded the fourth, sixth and eighth rounds.

From the gross gate of $47,420 Joe took a slice of approximately $14,000, including a flat $1,000 fee from the radio and television swag.

SCHOOL LEAGUE HOLDS ANNUAL WINTER CONFAB

Approximately 50 representatives of the eight member schools of the South Penn Scholastic Athletic conference attended the annual winter meeting held Wednesday evening at the Long View restaurant, located along the Lincoln highway, east of Abbottstown.

Paul Shull, Waynesboro, president, presided during the evening.

The 1951 baseball and track schedules were approved and it was announced the annual conference track meet will be held May 11 at 7:30 p.m. under the lights at Hanover. The meet was originally listed to be held in Gettysburg but due to regrading of the local field it was felt that conditions would not permit the meet to be held here.

A list of basketball officials was approved by the coaches and the 1952 game schedule was drawn and approved.

President Shull presented the 1950 football championship trophy to Ken Miller, coach of Carlisle's title winning squad.

Following a discussion on the effects of radio broadcasting of games it was decided that the eight principals of the member schools will meet January 22 at Carlisle at which time each will express the opinion of his board of directors in an effort to establish a future policy on broadcasting. Ralph Shockey, Chambersburg, is chairman for the meeting of the principals.

A committee, of which Prof. Gulle W. Lefever was chairman, announced that in the future the permanent meeting dates for the conference will be as follows: Second Wednesday after Labor Day; second Wednesday after Thanksgiving Day, and the second Wednesday in March.

Representing Gettysburg high school at the meeting were Dr. L. C. Keefe, Prof. Lefever, Fred Troxell, George Forney, Howard Sheemaker and Ross Sachs.

MARION CHOSEN CARDS MANAGER

St. Louis, Nov. 30 (P)—"He asked me did I want the job, and I said, 'Yes, sir, I want the job.'"

And that's how, at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, Martin Marion, "Mr. Shortstop" to the St. Louis Cardinals for 11 years, became their manager.

The announcement to the press came at 5:30 p.m. (EST).

President Fred Saigh said Marion had been the leading contender all along. Marion succeeds Eddie Dyer who resigned this fall.

The tall, slim South Carolinian smiled and said he thought being manager of the Cardinals was the greatest honor in baseball.

The press conference broke into a hot-stove league session. Everybody knew Marty so nobody had to get "backward."

"Mr. Shortstop-Manager" said Stan Musial would be played only in the outfield next year. And that his best bet for second base looked like Solly Hemus at the moment.

It was a one-year contract Marion signed. The terms were not disclosed but one sports writer estimated Marty would get $35,000—compared to his reported $25,000 as a player last season.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, Nov. 30 (P)—We sometimes wonder if football fans around the nation have the same feeling about the Army-Navy game that we have in this section. . . . They have their own windup games of considerable importance—Georgia Tech, Tennessee-Vanderbilt, TCU-SMU, to name a few—and they never get a chance to see the Cadets and Midshipmen face each other. . . . But in the east it's the big game of the season, even to the ordinary fan who never gets to buy a ticket and even when it figures to be "no contest" as it does this year. . . . To anyone who ever has seen one, there's something breath-taking about an Army-Navy game—the impressive entrances of the corps of Cadets and the regiment of Midshipmen, their stunts and incessant cheering, the something extra the athletes put into every play, the way under-dog teams have of rising to the occasion. . . . It's football at its best. . . . In every respect, Army figures to have the better of Saturday's tussle—there are too many Cadets who can run fast and far and too strong a defense. . . . But it will be a game, not a walk-over.

FIRST DOWN
When the Pitt-Penn State game was snowed out last week-end, the Penn State team had to use an Army truck to get from its hotel to the railroad station. . . . Coach Rip Engle wanted no part of it, having had one experience with the army this season, but he recalled the morning after that 42-7 drubbing. . . . A student manager handed Rip an early edition of the Sunday paper after that game and remarked: "Well, at least we made the front page." . . . Engle looked at the headline: "Army advances five miles."

SPORTSMENTION
Ex-Goalie Baz Bastien, now general manager of the Pittsburgh Hornets, still takes part in hockey practice with the aid of a plastic mask. . . . Weather permitting, Middleweight Lee Sala, inactive for five months, returns to action next week against Bill Stemmler at McKeesport, Pa. . . . The U. of Michigan, well pleased with its Canadian "import," Don McEwen, has come up with another good Canadian miler, Rich Ferguson. . . . Mike Cooley, Lehigh line coach, is getting laughs on the rubber chicken circuit with his tale of a football player who wore specs at a game for the first time in his senior year and gasped: "Why, it's the most surprising game I've ever seen."

New York, Nov. 30 (P)—Crossed schedules Dept.: For the third time in four years the U. of Texas basketballers will have to share inter-est with a bowl-bound football team. . . . Texas winds up its conference grid season tomorrow and the basketball opener is scheduled some 30 hours later. . . . But the cagers have six regularly-scheduled games and two tournaments before football ends in the Cotton Bowl. . . . Kansas State and William and Mary, which opens in Madison Square Garden Saturday against Long Island, both end their football seasons the same day. . . . Coach Barney Wilson calls his William and Mary cagers "the most interesting team I've ever coached." . . . Rube McCray, winding up his first losing season, might say that in spades about his footballers. . . . Still on basketball, when Ed Stanczyk resigned at New Hampshire, Andy Mooradian was advanced from the freshman to varsity coaching job. . . . Jere Chase, the dean of admissions, took the freshman job temporarily. We've always heard of coaches who'd like to be dean of admissions. . . . But this is the first vice versa.

SPORTS BEFORE YOUR EYES
Steve Oracko, Notre Dame's extra-point specialist for the past three years, wound up his first season as coach one point to the good. His St. Bede academy team of Peru, Ill., won five, lost four and tied one.

Stan Saplin, who recently quit as Rangers drummer, is operating out of suite 711 in a Fifth avenue office building. Stan figures the number might be more appropriate for either the Yankees or the State Racing commission, both in the same building. But if he figures it as a plug for Allied Public Relations associates it's no dice. . . . Rusty Russell has received so many requests for information about the Southern Methodist offense that he's thinking about writing a book. . . . And Missouri's Don Faurot already authored one on the split T which will hit the shops next week. It's required reading for anyone interested in that formation.

Pittsburgh, Nov. 30 (P)—Drifts up to 25 feet blocked some of Route 40 today as the tri-state district continued its seven-day snow battle. ## ARMY AND NAVY CONTEST FACES POOR WEATHER

Philadelphia, Nov. 30 (P)—This city of Brotherly Love readied itself today for the biggest invasion of the year—and two battles.

Footballwise, the main skirmish is the annual Army-Navy game set for Saturday in the huge 102,000-seat Municipal stadium.

The other battle, still on an "if" and "maybe" basis, appears to be with old man weather and his bag of tricks. Today the long-range forecast for Saturday is not pleasant—mild rain and snow, and cold.

The possibility of bad weather apparently worries Army more than Navy since unfavorable conditions afford generally are advantageous to the underdog. Of course, in any Army-Navy game form and favorite often take a beating.

West Point officials have telephoned the weather bureau here three times in the past two days, but the ominous forecast remained unchanged. The midshipmen haven't checked at all.

Meantime, Philadelphia got set for the invasion. Virtually every hotel room has been sold for the week-end. Even a late-arriving general or admiral might have difficulty getting accommodations.

Tickets to the 51st meeting between the service academies, usually hard to get, are available.

"And reasonable," says a ticket broker who himself had none for sale.

Phil Glassman says the scalpers have "plenty" of duets and are selling the $6 pasteboards for $12 and $15 each. Last year scalpers were getting $50 a pair and higher.

CHURCHILL IS 76 YEARS OLD

London, Nov. 30 (P)—Winston Churchill—76 years old today—is slated to open this afternoon the grimmest debate in Britain's House of Commons since World War II.

The continuing discussion on foreign affairs—centered entirely on the Korean crisis—was expected to last more than six hours, before Prime Minister Atlee closes it.

Atlee assumedly will reassure the tense House that he believes United Nations Forces fighting Red aggression will win out in the end.

Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin told Commons yesterday that a final settlement would be found "on political lines." Replying for the Conservatives, former Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden complained that Bevin had told nothing of what was in the government's mind on Korea.

Bevin said Britain is ready for any talks with the United Nations, France and Russia which might ease the currently perilous situation.

"The foreign secretary asserted the 'military development in the last few days has not altered my opinion one bit—it is on political lines in the end that we must seek the solution.'"

British newspapers generally applauded Bevin's account, but said it seemed to lack a sense of urgency.

Five Found Dead In Garage Today
Fayetteville, N. C., Nov. 30 (P)—Three civilians and two soldiers were found dead in a Fayetteville garage early today. Police said carbon monoxide gas caused the deaths.

Police listed the victims as: Pvt. Harold R. Knarr of the 82nd Reconnaissance company, Ft. Bragg; Pvt. William K. Crawford, Company C, 307th Airborne Engineers, Ft. Bragg; Sylvester Eagan of nearby Lakedale, a mechanic at the Frank R. Bailey Auto company garage, where the bodies were found in the repair department; Samuel M. Ridings, of Goldsboro, N. C.; James Y. Cary, whose clothing contained two addresses, Houston, Texas, and Terrace, Los Angeles. Police said Cary was a representative of the Pepsi-Cola Bottling company.

J. C. Owens, salesman for the auto firm, said he was "almost knocked out" when he opened the doors about 7:30 a.m. (EST). He said he saw one body in the dense fumes. He called police, and they found four more bodies. Four bodies were sprawled on the floor and the fifth was in an automobile seat.

SCHOOL LEAGUE HOLDS ANNUAL WINTER CONFAB

Approximately 50 representatives of the eight member schools of the South Penn Scholastic Athletic conference attended the annual winter meeting held Wednesday evening at the Long View restaurant, located along the Lincoln highway, east of Abbottstown.

Paul Shull, Waynesboro, president, presided during the evening.

The 1951 baseball and track schedules were approved and it was announced the annual conference track meet will be held May 11 at 7:30 p.m. under the lights at Hanover. The meet was originally listed to be held in Gettysburg but due to regrading of the local field it was felt that conditions would not permit the meet to be held here.

A list of basketball officials was approved by the coaches and the 1952 cage schedule was drawn and approved.

President Shull presented the 1950 football championship trophy to Ken Miller, coach of Carlisle's title winning squad.

Following a discussion on the effects of radio broadcasting of games it was decided that the eight principals of the member schools will meet January 22 at Carlisle at which time each will express the opinion of his board of directors in an effort to establish a future policy on broadcasting. Ralph Shockey, Chambersburg, is chairman for the meeting of the principals.

A committee, of which Prof. Guile W. Lefever was chairman, announced that in the future the permanent meeting dates for the conference will be as follows: Second Wednesday after Labor Day; second Wednesday after Thanksgiving Day, and the second Wednesday in March.

Representing Gettysburg high school at the meeting were Dr. L. C. Keefeauver, Prof. Lefever, Fred Troxell, George Forney, Howard Shoemaker and Ross Sachs.

MARION CHOSEN CARDS MANAGER

St. Louis, Nov. 30 (AP)—He asked me did I want the job, and I said, "Yes, sir, I want the job."

And that's how, at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, Martin Marion, "Mr. Shortstop" of the St. Louis Cardinals for 11 years, became their manager.

The announcement to the press came at 5:30 p.m. (EST).

President Fred Saigh said Marion had been the leading contender all along. Marion succeeds Eddie Dyer who resigned this fall.

The tall, slim South Carolinian smiled and said he thought being manager of the Cardinals was the greatest honor in baseball.

The press conference broke into a hot-stove league session. Everybody knew Marty so nobody had to get "backward."

"Mr. Shortstop-Manager" said Stan Musial would be played only in the outfield next year. And that his best bet for second base looked like Solly Hemus at the moment.

It was a one-year contract Marion signed. The terms were not disclosed but one sports writer estimated Marty would get $35,000—compared to his reported $25,000 as a player last season.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, Nov. 30 (AP)—We sometimes wonder if football fans around the nation have the same feeling about the Army-Navy game that we have in this section. . . . They have their own windup games of considerable importance—Georgia Tech, Tennessee-Vanderbilt, TCU-SMU, to name a few—and they never get a chance to see the Cadets and Midshipmen face each other. . . . But in the east it's the big game of the season, even to the ordinary fan who never gets to buy a ticket and even when it figures to be "no contest" as it does this year. . . . To anyone who ever has seen one, there's something breath-taking about an Army-Navy game—the impressive entrances of the corps of Cadets and the regiment of Midshipmen, their stunts and incessant cheering, the something extra the athletes put into every play, the way under-dog teams have of rising to the occasion. . . . It's football at its best. . . . In every respect, Army figures to have the better of Saturday's tussle — there are too many Cadets who can run fast and far and too strong a defense. . . . But it will be a game, not a walk-over.

FIRST DOWN

When the Pitt-Penn State game was snowed out last week-end, the Penn State team had to use an Army truck to get from its hotel to the railroad station. . . . Coach Rip Engle wanted no part of it, having had one experience with the army this season, but he recalled the morning after that 42-7 drubbing. . . . A student manager handed Rip an early edition of the Sunday paper after that game and remarked: "Well, at least we made the front page." . . . Engle looked at the headline: "Army advances five miles."

SPORTSMENTION

Ex-Goalie Baz Bastien, now general manager of the Pittsburgh Hornets, still takes part in hockey practice with the aid of a plastic mask. . . . Weather permitting, Middleweight Lee Sala, inactive for five months, returns to action next week against Bill Stemmler at McKeesport, Pa. . . . The U. of Michigan, well pleased with its Canadian "import," Don McEwen, has come up with another good Canadian miler, Rich Ferguson. . . . Mike Cooley, Lehigh line coach, is getting laughs on the rubber chicken circuit with his tale of a football player who wore specs at a game for the first time in his senior year and gasped: "Why, it's the most surprising game I've ever seen."

New York, Nov. 30 (AP)—Crossed schedules Dept.: For the third time in four years the U. of Texas basketballers will have to share intercollegiate with a bowl-bound football team. . . . Texas winds up its conference grid season tomorrow and the basketball opener is scheduled some 30 hours later. . . . But the cagers have six regularly-scheduled games and two tournaments before football ends in the Cotton Bowl. . . . Kansas State and William and Mary, which opens in Madison Square Garden Saturday against Long Island, both end their football seasons the same day. . . . Coach Barney Wilson calls his William and Mary cagers "the most interesting team I've ever coached." . . . Rube McCray, winding up his first losing season, might say that in spades about his footballers. . . . Still on basketball, when Ed Stanczyk resigned at New Hampshire, Andy Mooradian was advanced from the freshman to varsity coaching job. . . . Jere Chase, the dean of admissions, took the freshman job temporarily. We've always heard of coaches who'd like to be dean of admissions. . . . But this is the first vice versa.

FAVORS AID FOR SEWAGE PLANTS

Miami Beach, Fla., Nov. 30 (P)—Governor-elect John S. Fine promises to aid Pennsylvania communities in the construction of sewage disposal plants.

Fine, who is on a working vacation here as the guest of Wilkes-Barre's former state senator, Arndor Sordani, said yesterday it was his desire to continue the present state administration's anti-pollution drive without placing a burdensome financial strain upon communities.

"We will proceed with this phase of the state's clean streams program as rapidly as the financial condition of the state and the affected municipalities permits," fine said.

The governor-elect declined to say how the projects would be financed but it was believed he was considering state loans or, if possible, out-right grants.

Fine also announced that Brig. Gen. Richard K. Mellon, Pittsburgh, would be retained as state director of civil defense if he could persuade the general to remain on the job.

Fine praised the general's work and said his only problem was to convince Mellon he should remain on the job.

"He is doing a great public service at a great personal sacrifice," Fine said.

As drafted, the bill's estimated revenue falls short of President Truman's goal of $4,000,000,000 annually. This results from easing of the tax rate originally proposed by the administration.

Dr. Julius B. Harris, spokesman for six specialists, reported: "There are no paralyzed muscles in her legs. She will be able to walk and be a normal child again."

Initially Nina was paralyzed from the hips down. When the pretty high school senior was told the good news last night, "her little eyes filled up," Dr. Harris said.

The doctors "were very gratified with her progress. We couldn't have expected better." They had her take a few steps alongside the bed.

Mrs. Warren called that "a very exciting moment."

"We have been very lucky," she said. "And we should have a very happy Christmas."

Another Warren daughter, Dorothy, 19, is recovering from a slightly punctured lung and rib injuries suffered in an auto accident.

Washington, Nov. 30 (P)—The House Ways and Means committee today agreed on a compromise excess profits tax bill estimated to yield $3,400,000,000 a year. It would be retroactive to last July 1. As drafted, the bill's estimated revenue falls short of President Truman's goal of $4,000,000,000 annually. This results from easing of the tax rate originally proposed by the administration.

WILL PROCESS PRUNE JUICE

The Duffy-Mott corporation plans to keep its Aspers processing plant open throughout the winter processing Sunwest prune juice, Blaine "Bud" Hughes, manager of the Aspers plant, said today.

The plant, which was purchased from the Adams Apple corporation this fall by the Duffy-Mott corporation of New York, expects to complete its apple "run" this week, and then the plant will be closed for about one week while the machinery is set up to handle the production of prune juice. The plant will be able to handle up to one carload of prunes per day.

Hughes said that the prunes, all of a special type, will come from the Santa Clara valley in California and that the company expects to operate on prune juice processing until the summer months next year when it will resume seasonal fruit processing.

Hughes said that the company's first season of operation here was "very successful and the company officials are very well pleased with the apples obtained here in Adams county."

The company expects to keep from 50 to 75 persons employed throughout the year at the Aspers plant.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

WHAT HAVE I DONE?
I look at the several thousands of books in my library walls and they challenge me. Each volume represents what some man or woman has done. Books of history that tell of the deeds people have achieved since the dawn of history. Biographies that tell the stories of the great. Books of poetry and fiction that have stimulated and blessed the minds of millions.

What have I done? I have asked myself this question again and again. None of us has to be wealthy or famous in order to do something that is worthwhile and helpful to others. No matter what our station in life, we can do something each day of our lives that will help to make this a better world in which to live, and for others as well. We can each plan to be useful in our own way, according to our circumstances and opportunities. We can be kind, and give encouragement to others. We can lend a hand. We can be considerate, taking care not to misjudge. We can give an example of courage. We can share our happiness in a number of ways. We can give ourselves away!

We would all live happier lives, and in more contentment, if at the end of each day we ask of ourselves: What have I done today? Not for ourselves merely, but for those about us, or within our influence. How sacred are our obligations—to ourselves, our friends, to society as a whole, and to the free institutions that are our heritage. What privileges are ours, that others have earned, that they might be passed on to us? We can well say: What have I done to merit them?

Here is a favorite passage from Stevenson's "A Christmas Sermon," which I long ago committed to memory: "To be honest, to be kind—to earn a little and to spend a little less, to make upon the whole a family happier for his presence, to renounce when that shall be necessary and not be embittered, to keep a few friends, but these without capitulation—above all, on the same grim condition to keep friends with himself—here is a task for all that a man has of fortitude and delicacy."

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Appreciation"

WAR
Why go to war when at its close
The victors have to feed their foes?

Why hail that victory with joy
Which means: "Restore what shells destroy?"

Why town and city blow to dust
Which after peace re-build you must?

Why crush a nation when 'tis plain
You'll have to lift it up again.

Why slaughter and destruction
choose,
When if you win the war you lose?

PREDICTS END OF WORLD

Penang, Nov. 30 (AP)—Is the end of the world near? That seems to be a main topic of conversation among villagers in outlying districts of Penang and Province Wellesley these days. Those doing the talking say that the sun will soon disappear for three days and nights and after that it will be seen rising in the west. This, say rumor-mongers, is a sign that the world's end is near. All of this kind of talk originated from a letter reportedly discovered in far-off Mecca, and sent here. So superstitious-minded village folks are spreading the "news."

Centenarian Advises
"Do Shopping Early"

Lancaster, Pa., Nov. 30 (AP)—Mrs. Sarah A. Swope, who celebrated her 101st birthday today, offered this advice: "Do your Christmas shopping early."

Mrs. Swope, widow of a Spanish-American war veteran, said she has observed too many people "burn up their energy" waiting to do their gift buying until the last minute. That sort of haste makes for a shorter life, she said.

A native of Gordonville, Lancaster county, Mrs. Swope lives with her daughter, Mrs. Mary Kalbfell. The little lady of 101 has ten grandchildren, 12 great grandchildren and five great, great grandchildren. There is also another daughter in addition to Mrs. Kalbfell.

Mrs. Swope, whose husband died a number of years ago, has been on crutches since she broke her hip at the age of 95. Until last year, she always did her own Christmas shopping—and usually had it all finished by the end of September.

TRUMAN'S TAX
PLAN DOOMED

Washington, Nov. 30 (AP)—President Truman's $4,000,000,000 excess profits tax proposal appeared doomed to defeat today in the House Ways and Means committee.

But it also appeared certain that the committee soon will come up with a compromise that won't yield as much revenue as the President wants to help pay mounting defense costs but will tax profits defined as abnormal.

A day of up-and-down-the-hill voting yesterday left the committee about where it started and threw off schedule its timetable calling for a complete bill by the end of this week. Revised prospects were that a bill would be ready some time next week.

Plan Compromise
Strong sentiment is building up in the committee for a compromise which might embody both an excess profits tax and an increase in present corporate income tax rates.

Opponents of the President's proposal held the upper hand yesterday but couldn't hold their lines tightly. With solid Republican backing, they tentatively turned down the administration suggestion that a tax of 75 per cent be levied on corporate earnings that exceed 75 per cent of those in a 1946-1949 base period.

Then, on separate votes, they agreed tentatively to slap an 80 per cent tax rate on earnings in excess of the 1946-49 average. But when the two plans were coupled together by a parliamentary situation, the substitute was defeated. It was estimated to be capable of yielding $2,800,000,000 in new revenue annually.

HAIRCUTS ARE $135
Chicago, Nov. 30 (AP)—Prices of haircuts in Chicago area barber-shops are going up a dime—to $1.35. Frank Allotta, secretary of the Master Barbers association of Chicago, said the new prices will become effective December 18.

ESCAPE THROUGH
FLAMING TOWN

In A 5th Air Force Plane Over Kunu, Northwest Korea, Nov. 30 (AP)—The last American troops protecting the retreat of the U. S. Eighth Army across a key ferry point on the Chongchon river withdrew safely today through flaming Kunu village.

A dozen fires sprouted in Kunu shortly before noon as fighter planes dived and strafed Chinese Red troops moving in to take it.

After pulling out of Kunu, American vehicles moved in a packed column westward along the river bank to Anju. There they could join other Allied columns retreating south.

A group of tanks was stationed behind the vehicles at a road block two miles out of Kunu to smash any Red pursuit attempts. There was none.

Not Much Of A Barrier
The Chongchon river now is the dividing line that separates the bulk of the advancing Chinese Reds from the bulk of the retreating Eighth Army.

It is a winding, shallow stream about halfway between the former North Korean capital of Pyongyang and the Manchurian border. It isn't much of a military barrier.

A four-hour air trip over the frozen battlefield showed intense activity on the United Nations side of the river.

There were no military movements of any kind on the Chinese side visible at 1,800 feet. No enemy troops or vehicles could be seen.

The land beyond the Chongchon looked dead and brown and bare—except for huddled groups of refugees, some wading the ice-patched waters.

Railroad Trustees
Quit After Wreck

New York, Nov. 30 (AP)—The bankruptcy trustees of the Long Island railroad have resigned under pressure from public officials and embittered commuters in the wake of two weeks fatal to 110 persons. The trustees, David E. Smucker and Hunter L. Delator, submitted their resignations yesterday to Federal Judge Harold M. Kennedy. They will continue in office, however, until the judge names a single new bankruptcy trustee.

nuts and apples. Judge W. C. Sheely, who was toastmaster at the organization dinner of the club in the Blue Parrot tearoom 12 years ago and who has attended each anniversary dinner since, cut the three-layer birthday cake in the club's colors of gold and blue. Mrs. Sheely also was a guest of the club.

Members were present from the Hanover and Westminster, Md., clubs and a number of other clubs sent last minute regrets due to road conditions. Mrs. Vena Rebert spoke for the Hanover club and Mrs. Ruth Anna Moore for the Westminster group. Letters of greeting were read from the local Business and Professional Women's club and the Harrisburg Soroptimist club.

The following brought greetings from local service clubs: Mrs. E. W. Thomas, Woman's club; Dr. Kenneth Smoke, president, Rotary club; Radford H. Lippy, president, Lions club, and Nelson Groft, representing the Exchange club.

Dale Roth, accompanied by Mrs. Siegal, sang two groups of numbers, "I Hear a Thrush at Eve," "Thru the Years," "Without a Song" and "My Lindy Lou." Judge Sheely spoke briefly in a reminiscent vein and introduced Mrs. Guyon E. Buehler, treasurer of the North Atlantic region of Soroptimist clubs and a charter member of the local club, who spoke on "Mid-Century Crossroads." She brought to mind things that were characteristic of the first part of the century. "1950," she said, "has been called the aspirin age, the age of anxiety and the atomic age." She spoke of the menaces and fears through which women must walk today and "must learn to walk with assurance and faith so that the next generation will be brought up to face their problems with courage and uprightness." She discussed the United Nations and the various organizations, large and small, in this country that are working to help the citizenry with their problems, and urged that the women, individually and in their clubs, realize that God still rules the world, pick out the work they can best do and fit their lives into the community pattern.

Mrs. Myers called to the attention of the members that contributions for the Christmas gifts for three children in the Child Welfare association should be given to her as soon as possible. The group sent formal greetings and flowers to their absent president and the meeting was closed with the Soroptimist pledge.

This anniversary dinner was in charge of the board of directors of the club.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

In Memoriam 3

Sleep on, dear grandma, and take thy rest;
Lay down thy head upon thy Saviour's breast;
We love thee well, but Jesus loves thee best.
Good-night! Good-night! Good-night!
—Linda, Tommy and Ronnie
We would not have you back on earth,
Your body racked with pain,
We know that longing for your mirth,
Your comradeship is vain;
And yet, when we sit wondering,
As night is merged with day,
It seems your spirit comes to bring
The words you cannot say.
—The family
In memory of Mrs. Rufus Roth who died Nov. 30, 1949, late of Biglerville.

Today's Talk
By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

WHAT HAVE I DONE?

I look at the several thousands of books in my library walls and they challenge me. Each volume represents what some man or woman has done. Books of history that tell of the deeds people have achieved since the dawn of history. Biographies that tell the stories of the great. Books of poetry and fiction that have stimulated and blessed the minds of millions.

What have I done? I have asked myself this question again and again. None of us has to be wealthy or famous in order to do something that is worthwhile and helpful to others. No matter what our station in life, we can do something each day of our lives that will help to make this a better world in which to live, and for others as well.

We can each plan to be useful in our own way, according to our circumstances and opportunities. We can be kind, and give encouragement to others. We can lend a hand. We can be considerate, taking care not to misjudge. We can give an example of courage. We can share our happiness in a number of ways. We can give ourselves away!

We would all live happier lives, and in more contentment, if at the end of each day we ask of ourselves: What have I done today? Not for ourselves merely, but for those about us, or within our influence. How sacred are our obligations—to ourselves, our friends, to society as a whole, and to the free institutions that are our heritage. What privileges are ours, that others have earned, that they might be passed on to us! We can well say: What have I done to merit them?

Here is a favorite passage from Stevenson's "A Christmas Sermon," which I long ago committed to memory: "To be honest, to be kind—to earn a little and to spend a little less, to make upon the whole a family happier for his presence, to renounce when that shall be necessary and not be embittered, to keep a few friends, but these without capitulation—above all, on the same grim condition to keep friends with himself—here is a task for all that a man has of fortitude and delicacy."

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Appreciation"

OLDER MEMBERS OF ELIAS CHURCH DINNER GUESTS

A small group of older members of Elias Evangelical Lutheran church were honored by the Women of the Church when they were guests at a dinner served in the parish hall Wednesday at 12 o'clock. Those present for the dinner included Mrs. C. C. Riffe, who will be 83 on her birthday, December 2, and is the only living charter member of the Women's Missionary society, which she joined at the age of 10 years. Centenarian Advises "Do Shopping Early"

Lancaster, Pa., Nov. 30 (AP)—Mrs. Sarah A. Swope, who celebrated her 101st birthday today, offered this advice: "Do your Christmas shopping early."

Mrs. Swope, widow of a Spanish-American war veteran, said she has observed too many people "burn up their energy" waiting to do their gift buying until the last minute. That sort of haste makes for a shorter life, she said.

A native of Gordonville, Lancaster county, Mrs. Swope lives with her daughter, Mrs. Mary Kaibfell. The little lady of 101 has ten grandchildren, 12 great grandchildren and five great, great grandchildren. There is also another daughter in addition to Mrs. Kaibfell.

Mrs. Swope, whose husband died a number of years ago, has been on crutches since she broke her hip at the age of 95. Until last year, she always did her own Christmas shopping—and usually had it all finished by the end of September.

LAST YANKEES ESCAPE THROUGH FLAMING TOWN

By HAL BOYLE

In A 5th Air Force Plane Over Kunu, Northwest Korea, Nov. 30 (AP)—The last American troops protecting the retreat of the U. S. Eighth Army across a key ferry point on the Chongchon river withdrew safely today through flaming Kunu village.

A dozen fires sprouted in Kunu shortly before noon as fighter planes dived and strafed Chinese Red troops moving in to take it.

After pulling out of Kunu, American vehicles moved in a packed column westward along the river bank to Anju. There they could join other Allied columns retreating south.

A group of tanks was stationed behind the vehicles at a road block two miles out of Kunu to smash any Red pursuit attempts. There was none.

Not Much Of A Barrier

The Chongchon river now is the dividing line that separates the bulk of the advancing Chinese Reds from the bulk of the retreating Eighth Army.

It is a winding, shallow stream about halfway between the former North Korean capital of Pyongyang and the Manchurian border. It isn't much of a military barrier.

A four-hour air trip over the frozen battlefield showed intense activity on the United Nations side of the river.

There were no military movements of any kind on the Chinese side visible at 1,800 feet. No enemy troops or vehicles could be seen.

The land beyond the Chongchon looked dead and brown and bare—except for huddled groups of refugees, some wading the ice-patched waters.

nuts and apples. Judge W. C. Sheely, who was toastmaster at the organization dinner of the club in the Blue Parrot tearoom 12 years ago and who has attended each anniversary dinner since, cut the three-layer birthday cake in the club's colors of gold and blue. Mrs. Sheely also was a guest of the club.

Members were present from the Hanover and Westminster, Md., clubs and a number of other clubs sent last minute regrets due to road conditions. Mrs. Vena Rebert spoke for the Hanover club and Mrs. Ruth Anna Moore for the Westminster group. Letters of greeting were read from the local Business and Professional Women's club and the Harrisburg Soroptimist club.

The following brought greetings from local service clubs: Mrs. E. W. Thomas, Woman's club; Dr. Kenneth Smoke, president, Rotary club; Radford H. Lippy, president, Lions club, and Nelson Graft, representing the Exchange club.

Dale Roth, accompanied by Mrs. Segal, sang two groups of numbers, "I Hear a Thrush at Eve," "Thru the Years," "Without a Song" and "My Lady Lou." Judge Sheely spoke briefly in a reminiscent vein and introduced Mrs. Guyon E. Buehler, treasurer of the North Atlantic region of Soroptimist clubs and a charter member of the local club, who spoke on "Mid-Century Crossroads." She brought to mind things that were characteristic of the first part of the century "1950," she said, "has been called the aspirin age, the age of anxiety and the atomic age." She spoke of the menaces and fears through which women must walk today and "must learn to walk with assurance and faith so that the next generation will be brought up to face their problems with courage and uprightness." She discussed the United Nations and the various organizations, large and small, in this country that are working to help the citizenry with their problems, and urged that the women, individually and in their clubs, realize that God still rules the world, pick out the work they can best do and fit their lives into the community pattern.

Mrs. Myers called to the attention of the members that contributions for the Christmas gifts for three children in the Child Welfare association should be given to her as soon as possible. The group sent formal greetings and flowers to their absent president and the meeting was closed with the Soroptimist pledge.

This anniversary dinner was in charge of the board of directors of the club.

TRUMAN'S TAX PLAN DOOMED

Washington, Nov. 30 (AP)—President Truman's $4,000,000,000 excess profits tax proposal appeared doomed to defeat today in the House Ways and Means committee.

But it also appeared certain that the committee soon will come up with a compromise that won't yield as much revenue as the President wants to help pay mounting defense costs but will tax profits defined as abnormal.

A day of up-and-down-the-hill voting yesterday left the committee about where it started and threw off schedule its timetable calling for a complete bill by the end of this week. Revised prospects were that a bill would be ready some time next week.

Plan Compromise

Strong sentiment is building in the committee for a compromise which might embody both an excess profits tax and an increase in present corporate income tax rates.

Opponents of the President's proposal held the upper hand yesterday but couldn't hold their lines tightly.

With solid Republican backing, they tentatively turned down the administration suggestion that a tax of 75 per cent be levied on corporate earnings that exceed 75 per cent of those in a 1946-1949 base period.

Then, on separate votes, they agreed tentatively to slap an 80 per cent tax rate on earnings in excess of the 1946-49 average. But when the two plans were coupled together by a parliamentary situation, the substitute was defeated. It was estimated to be capable of yielding $2,800,000,000 in new revenue annually.

HAIRCUTS ARE $1.35

PREDICTS END OF WORLD

Penang, Nov. 30 (AP)—Is the end of the world near? That seems to be a main topic of conversation among villagers in outlying districts of Penang and Province Wellesley these days. Those doing the talking say that the sun will soon disappear for three days and nights and after that it will be seen rising in the west.

This, say rumor-mongers, is a sign that the world's end is near. All of this kind of talk originated from a letter reportedly discovered in far-off Mecca, and sent here to superstitious-minded village folks are spreading the "news."

CRITICISM OF DIVISION IN FIELD COMMAND

With U.S. Eighth Army, Korea, Nov. 30 (AP)—Collapse of the United Nations offensive has drawn sharp criticism here of the divided command in General MacArthur's military forces in Korea.

Many military men are questioning the setup in which the U.S. Tenth Corps is operating in north-east Korea entirely independently of the Eighth army on the northwest front.

The Tenth Corps, commanded by Maj. Gen. Edward M. Almond, frequently is referred to in this theater as a "special police force."

One Corps, One Army
In effect, MacArthur has two forces fighting in Korea — one labeled as an army, and the other as a corps. The coordination of these forces is not handled in the field but from GHQ in Tokyo.

This sharp separation of command responsibilities in the field has been one of the puzzles of the Korean war. No one yet has given an official explanation of why Tenth Corps is divorced from Eighth Army.

Associated Press Correspondent Stan Swinton, who has covered Tenth Corps since Almond's men went ashore in the northeast, pointed out today there was a physical reason for the separation of commands. He said the north-central Korean mountain pass splits North Korea in half so Eighth Army and Tenth Corps could not operate as a single unit.

Swinton said many officers at Tenth Corps privately believe there should be closer liaison between Eighth Army and Tenth Corps but a popular opinion there is that Tenth Corps — actually operating as an army and not as a corps — should be given army status and an overall army group command set up at a central point in Korea.

Up To GHQ
Lt. Gen. Walton H. Walker commands the Eighth Army. But actually he is responsible for only half the fighting front despite his three stars. The other half of the responsibility rests on the two-star command of Almond.

No officer dares talk for publication but privately they have begun to question the wisdom of this cleavage in field command. This is where the spot decision must be made in fighting the enemy.

Right now Eighth Army is fighting for its life against hordes of well-trained Chinese Red troops. But Walker has no power to shift any positions from the east to bolster his western front. He cannot order Tenth Corps troops to bolster his battered line. This would have to be a GHQ decision.

MAN CHARGED WITH BIGAMY

New Castle, Pa., Nov. 30 (AP)—Robert Hooper, a 27-year-old unemployed salesman, is in jail on a bigamy charge while his wife of five days is staying in a nearby hotel awaiting developments.

New Castle police said they picked up Hooper on a telegraphic warrant filed from his hometown in Johnstown, Pa.

They added that Mrs. Gladys Burkhard Hooper, 24, who said she was married to Hooper last Saturday at Johnstown, was not arrested.

At Johnstown, a woman who said she was Mrs. Rosemary Hill Hooper told authorities she had been married to the salesman six years.

Sheriff John Conway at Johnstown said he sent out the warrant for Hooper's arrest after Mrs. Hooper filed the bigamy charge before Alderman James T. Malloy.

The No. 1 Mrs. Hooper said she had no idea her husband had been married until she read an account of the wedding in a Johnstown newspaper.

The No. 2 Mrs. Hooper said she had been living in Johnstown for several years, had "gone with Robert seven months and had no idea he was married."

Saying she is remaining in the hotel until the situation is clarified, the No. 2 Mrs. Hooper added: "I saw Robert in jail... but that's all, absolutely all, I can say now."

'LITTLE STINKER' IN OIL BUSINESS

Washington, Nov. 30 (AP)—A little stinker six times as valuable as gold emerged today from a government laboratory and went into the oil business.

Turn Over Election Expense Records

Harrisburg, Nov. 30 (AP)—The Commonwealth has turned over copies of expense accounts filed by all candidates for U. S. Senator in the May 16 primary to a Senate Elections Investigating committee.

Gene D. Smith, secretary of the commonwealth, said the information was requested by Sen. Guy M. Gillette (D-Iowa), chairman of the committee.

Smith said he was "surprised" by the request since the committee's investigations visited here several months ago and examined the expense accounts.

"Apparently the information furnished the Senate committee by its investigators disclosed that the Republican party in Pennsylvania was honest and Senator Gillette refuses to believe it," Smith commented. He added, however, that he told Gillette in a letter that the State Election Bureau "stands ready and willing" to provide any data needed by the committee.

AUTOS BARRED IN DOWNTOWN PITTSBURGH

Pittsburgh, Nov. 29 (AP)—Armed National Guardsmen barred autos from entering downtown Pittsburgh today in an effort to prevent a traffic jam which would stymie snow-removing operations.

The helmeted troops—more than 200 strong—stood guard at 52 road blocks on streets leading to the Golden Triangle, Pittsburgh's downtown business district.

Mayor David J. Lawrence ordered the Guardsmen to halt and turn back all autos except those on essential errands.

Yesterday thousands of motorists jammed the downtown area, ignoring requests to leave their cars at home. Many were shoppers, anxious to buy in stores which had been closed since Friday.

No Parking Space
Parking space on the snow-clogged streets is non-existent. There won't be any parking until snow-removal crews clear streets of the record breaking 30.5 inch snowfall of the past six days.

Today's store hours were changed from noon to 9 p.m. (Eastern Standard Time). The change will permit shoppers to come and go in off-peak traffic periods.

Meanwhile, forecasters said Pittsburgh would get no more than an inch of new snow from continued flurries. Temperatures still ranged around freezing.

Forty persons have died throughout Pennsylvania in the wake of the week-end snow, wind and ice storms. Seventeen deaths occurred in Pittsburgh's metropolitan area.

The railroad center of Altoona, Pa., still is suffering from the effects of its ice storm. All but a handful of the 84,000 residents have been without electric power since Saturday.

Potato Chip Firm To Hold Open House

The Utz Potato Chip company, Inc., Hanover, will hold "open house" next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday during which time the public is invited to visit and inspect the company's recently completed and modern plant. Planned several years ago, it had been under construction since March, 1948. It is situated on a 10-acre plot. It is one of the most beautiful factory buildings in the Hanover area and one of the most modernly equipped. As far as it is known, it is the largest plant under one roof in the U. S., primarily designed and devoted to the manufacture of potato chips.

Of face brick, concrete and steel construction, entirely fire proof, it is two stories in height. It contains three potato storage rooms, garage, package and shipping container storage space, refuse treatment room, processing and shipping rooms, retail sales room and office.

Eire Will Purchase Coal From Uncle Sam

Dublin, Ireland, Nov. 30 (AP)—The Eire government today decided to buy between 100,000 and 150,000 tons of coal from the United States to make up the deficit in shipments from Britain. It was estimated the purchase will cost about $1,000,000.

Britain—one of the world's greatest coal producers—will herself be forced to buy fuel to tide her through the winter.

Singleton Asks For Jury Trial

Philadelphia, Nov. 30 (AP)—Federal Judge J. Cullen Ganev will hear argument Monday on James Singleton's request for a jury trial on government charges for contempt of court.

Singleton, described in testimony by investigators as a gambler, has refused to answer questions of a federal grand jury. He contends that by answering the questions he would tend to incriminate himself.

"I stand upon my constitutional rights under the fifth amendment and upon my rights under the 14th amendment and also under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania," he told the jury.

Max H. Goldstein, special deputy attorney general directing the grand jury probe of rackets and gambling, asked Judge Ganev to hold Singleton for criminal contempt for refusing to answer questions by the jury and disobeying order of the U. S. District court to do so.

Finnish Assets In U.S. Are Released

Washington, Nov. 30 (AP)—Attorney General McGrath today announced a complete unblocking of Finnish assets frozen in this country during World War II.

The blocking action was taken against the U. S. properties of citizens of a score of friendly foreign countries in 1941 to prevent their possible use by enemy governments.

These assets were progressively released after the war when individual investigation showed no enemy taint in the properties involved.

Officials said today's order affects less than $1,000,000 mostly in accounts in New York banks.

China And Asia To Get Full Facts

Washington, Nov. 30 (AP)—The "Voice of America" has made facilities available to the United Nations for broadcasts to China and other parts of Asia.

A State department announcement yesterday said west coast transmitters are being used to give China and Asia full coverage on United Nations developments.

Seven transmitters were turned over to the U.N. Tuesday and yesterday for several hours. Two relay transmitters at Honolulu increase the power of the broadcasts.

There are over 4,225,000 individual private owners of commercial forest lands in the United States, owning approximately 345 million acres.

MOSCOW IS BIG POWER BEHIND KOREAN CRISIS

By DeWITT MACKENZIE (AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)
The attitude of the gravely concerned western powers toward the terribly dangerous Korean crisis seems generally to follow the line of Teddy Roosevelt's famous version of an old adage:

"Speak softly and carry a big stick; you will go far."

All the chancelleries have engaged in a ceaseless search for a solution which might prevent the Far Eastern explosion from developing into another world war. No breath of "appeasement" has been apparent but there has been a diligent effort without loud bluster, to discover a "political" method of settlement.

British Foreign Secretary Bevin summed the matter up like this after long hours of research:

"Resist Aggression"
"If the Chinese want to avoid general war and if they show the slightest signs of willingness to cooperate in exploring a solution by peaceful means, I am satisfied a solution can be found."

Bevin said he had consulted Washington and the purpose of the two governments was the same, namely, "to resist aggression, to localize hostilities and to settle the Korean problem on a basis satisfactory to the United Nations."

Obviously Bevin's hope was based on a big "if" regarding Communist China's intentions. In United Nations quarters there was gloom because of the belligerent attitude adopted by the Red Chinese delegates.

And of course the effort to read the Chinese mind has to take into account the fact that Peiping speaks in agreement with, and likely by order of Moscow. Therefore the puzzle which the western powers must solve is whether Russia wants to get the western powers—and especially the United States—engaged in a major war with China, or whether Moscow may even contemplate precipitating a world war for the final showdown between communism and democracy. China is one of the pawns in this struggle of the Isms.

Are Reds Ready
The consensus of western observers is that Russia isn't yet ready for another world war. If that estimate is correct, then one would expect Moscow's immediate objective to be the fostering of an all-out struggle.

HOG HORMONES WILL BE TRIED ON BALD PATES

Philadelphia, Nov. 30 (AP)—A hog hormone credited with growing hair on white rats will be tested next week on humans.

The United Research laboratory of Philadelphia reported yesterday that three years of experiments on white rats showed "this hormone will grow hair where hair is supposed to grow."

Albert Roberts, president and technical director of the laboratory, is credited with developing the hormone. It cannot be purchased by private citizens.

Clinical tests on human will be conducted by several of the nation's leading dermatologists and gle between China and the democracies. The point of such a conflict, as you know, would be to bleed the western nations white, both militarily and economically, in preparation for a subsequent world war which would be launched at Russia's convenience.

Moscow is the driving force behind it all, and she has no respect for anything but a "big stick."

"Dematotropic Hormone"

Roberts calls his discovery the dematotropic hormone. He said it is taken from the pituitary gland located near the hog's brain.

"We can prove that this hormone grows hair," he said. "We have removed the hair on rats, which are equivalent in age to men 35 to 40 and have it back."

"We produced baldness in rats by removing their pituitary gland. Then we have injected the hog hormone intramuscularly into the buttocks and hair grows within several days."

Not Available Commercially
Roberts said that every hair in a human has a life span of between two and six years, then it falls out.

"When new hair fails to grow in, you're bald," Roberts stated, adding: "The new dematotropic hormone activates the hair follicle and produces new hair."

The hormone is removed from the hog and made into a powder and the powder combined with isotonic salt to form the solution which is injected, Roberts explained.

He said he has no idea when the hormone may be available commercially. His company manufactures hormones for sale to hospitals.

RENT CONTROLS UP FOR DEBATE

Washington, Nov. 30 (AP)—A two-month extension of Federal rent controls beyond December 31 headed today for Senate debate with predictions it will be approved speedily.

The extension legislation cleared the Senate Banking committee late yesterday by a 10-2 vote. Chairman Maybank (D-S. C.) later predicted to reporters it would clear the Senate by a wide margin, adding:

"I am convinced that this is necessary so we can keep faith with the men who are fighting in Korea and their families."

The present law is due to expire December 31, except in communities which vote to keep them in effect to June 30. The resolution would set a February 28 expiration date, while leaving unchanged the community extension period.

President Truman had asked congress to extend the law for 90 days to permit a study of the rent situation by the new 82nd congress. In the House, Chairman Spence (D-Ky.) has introduced a bill for a 90-day extension, but it has not been acted upon.

Senate Democratic Leader Lucas of Illinois told reporters he would call the resolution up for debate as soon as possible.

Harrisburg, Nov. 30 (AP)—Pennsylvania's state fish hatcheries suffered only negligible damage from the storm last week-end.

'LITTLE STINKER' IN OIL BUSINESS

Washington, Nov. 30 (AP)—A little stinker six times as valuable as gold emerged today from a government laboratory and went into the oil business.

Name: Isopropylmercaptan. Value: $210 an ounce (gold is $35). Smell, as officially described by the U.S. Bureau of Mines: so bad "even a skunk would turn up its nose."

It's a colorless liquid, the 11th in a series of rare sulphur compounds produced at the Bureau's petroleum and oil shale experiment station at Laramie, Wyo.

The government's new fleur de billygoat has only one known use—as a sort of detective agent in precision equipment testing petroleum for various chemicals.

The lab has turned out two quarts of the stuff, or $14,000 worth. It's bottled in one-sixth-of-an-ounce vials, which sell for $35.

And worth every scent of it.

CRITICISM OF DIVISION IN FIELD COMMAND

With U.S. Eighth Army, Korea, Nov. 30 (P)—Collapse of the United Nations offensive has drawn sharp criticism here of the divided command in General MacArthur's military forces in Korea.

Many military men are questioning the setup in which the U.S. Tenth Corps is operating in northeast Korea entirely independently of the Eighth army on the northwest front.

The Tenth Corps, commanded by Maj. Gen. Edward M. Almond, frequently is referred to in this theater as a "special police force."

One Corps, One Army
In effect, MacArthur has two forces fighting in Korea—one labeled as an army, and the other as a corps. The coordination of these forces is not handled in the field but from GHQ in Tokyo.

This sharp separation of command responsibilities in the field has been one of the puzzles of the Korean war. No one yet has given an official explanation of why Tenth Corps is divorced from Eighth Army.

Associated Press Correspondent Stan Swinton, who has covered Tenth Corps since Almond's men went ashore in the northeast, pointed out today there was a physical reason for the separation of commands. He said the north-central Korean mountain pass splits North Korea in half so Eighth Army and Tenth Corps could not operate as a single unit.

Swinton said many officers at Tenth Corps privately believe there should be closer liaison between Eighth Army and Tenth Corps but a popular opinion there is that Tenth Corps—actually operating as an army and not as a corps—should be given army status and an overall army group command set up at a central point in Korea.

Up To GHQ
Lt. Gen. Walton H. Walker commands the Eighth Army. But actually he is responsible for only half the fighting front despite his three stars. The other half of the responsibility rests on the two-star command of Almond.

No officer dares talk for publication but privately they have begun to question the wisdom of this cleavage in field command. This is where the spot decision must be made in fighting the enemy.

Right now Eighth Army is fighting for its life against hordes of well trained Chinese Red troops. But Walker has no power to shift any positions from the east to bolster his western front. He cannot order Tenth Corps troops to bolster his battered line. This would have to be a GHQ decision.

MAN CHARGED WITH BIGAMY

New Castle, Pa., Nov. 30 (P)—Robert Hooper, a 27-year-old unemployed salesman, is in jail on a bigamy charge while his wife of five days is staying in a nearby hotel awaiting developments.

New Castle police said they picked up Hooper on a telegraphic warrant filed from his hometown in Johnstown, Pa.

They added that Mrs. Gladys Burkhard Hooper, 24, who said she was married to Hooper last Saturday at Johnstown, was not arrested. At Johnstown, a woman who said she was Mrs. Rosemary Hill Hooper told authorities she had been married to the salesman six years.

Sheriff John Conway at Johnstown said he sent out the warrant for Hooper's arrest after Mrs. Hooper filed the bigamy charge before Alderman James T. Malloy.

The No. 1 Mrs. Hooper said she had no idea her husband had been married until she read an account of the wedding in a Johnstown newspaper.

The No. 2 Mrs. Hooper said she had been living in Johnstown for several years, had "gone with Robert seven months and had no idea he was married."

Saying she is remaining in the hotel until the situation is clarified, the No. 2 Mrs. Hooper added:

"I saw Robert in jail... but that's all, absolutely all, I can say now."

Turn Over Election Expense Records

Harrisburg, Nov. 30 (P)—The Commonwealth has turned over copies of expense accounts filed by all candidates for U. S. Senator in the May 16 primary to a Senate Elections Investigating committee.

Gene D. Smith, secretary of the commonwealth, said the information was requested by Sen. Guy M. Gillette (D-Iowa), chairman of the committee.

Smith said he was "surprised" by the request since the committee's investigators visited here several months ago and examined the expense accounts.

"Apparently the information furnished the Senate committee by its investigators disclosed that the Republican party in Pennsylvania was honest and Senator Gillette refuses to believe it," Smith commented. He added, however, that he told Gillette in a letter that the State Election Bureau "stands ready and willing" to provide any data needed by the committee.

AUTOS BARRED IN DOWNTOWN PITTSBURGH

Pittsburgh, Nov. 29 (P)—Armed National Guardsmen barred autos from entering downtown Pittsburgh today in an effort to prevent a traffic jam which would stymie snow-removing operations.

The helmeted troops—more than 200 strong—stood guard at 52 road blocks on streets leading to the Golden Triangle, Pittsburgh's downtown business district.

Mayor David J. Lawrence ordered the Guardsmen to halt and turn back all autos except those on essential errands.

Yesterday thousands of motorists jammed the downtown area, ignoring requests to leave their cars at home. Many were shoppers, anxious to buy in stores which had been closed since Friday.

No Parking Space
Parking space on the snow-clogged streets is non-existent. There won't be any parking until snow-removal crews clear streets of the record breaking 30.5 inch snowfall of the past six days.

Today's store hours were changed from noon to 9 p.m. (Eastern Standard Time). The change will permit shoppers to come and go in off-peak traffic periods.

Meanwhile, forecasters said Pittsburgh would get no more than an inch of new snow from continued flurries. Temperatures still ranged around freezing.

Forty persons have died throughout Pennsylvania in the wake of the week-end snow, wind and ice storms. Seventeen deaths occurred in Pittsburgh's metropolitan area.

The railroad center of Altoona, Pa., still is suffering from the effects of its ice storm. All but a handful of the 84,000 residents have been without electric power since Saturday.

Potato Chip Firm To Hold Open House

The Utz Potato Chip company, Inc., Hanover, will hold "open house" next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday during which time the public is invited to visit and inspect the company's recently completed and modern plant. Planned several years ago, it had been under construction since March, 1948. It is situated on a 10-acre plot. It is one of the most beautiful factory buildings in the Hanover area and one of the most modern equipped. As far as it is known, it is the largest plant under one roof in the U. S. primarily designed and devoted to the manufacture of potato chips.

Of face brick, concrete and steel construction, entirely fire proof, it is two stories in height. It contains three potato storage rooms, garage, package and shipping container storage space, refuse treatment room, processing and shipping rooms, retail sales room and office.

Eire Will Purchase Coal From Uncle Sam

Dublin, Ireland, Nov. 30 (P)—The Eire government today decided to buy between 100,000 and 150,000 tons of coal from the United States to make up the deficit in shipments from Britain. It was estimated the purchase will cost about $1,000,000.

Britain—one of the world's greatest coal producers—will herself be forced to buy fuel to tide her through the winter.

British fuel minister, Philip Noel Baker, explained last week that the coal shortage was due to the slump in production because of heavy rains throughout the summer and fall, greater home consumption and unusually heavy exports during the first half of 1950.

Singleton Asks For Jury Trial

Philadelphia, Nov. 30 (P)—Federal Judge J. Cullen Ganev will hear argument Monday on James Singleton's request for a jury trial on government charges for contempt of court.

Singleton, described in testimony by investigators as a gambler, has refused to answer questions of a federal grand jury. He contends that by answering the questions he would tend to incriminate himself.

"I stand upon my constitutional rights under the fifth amendment and upon my rights under the 14th amendment and also under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania," he told the jury.

Max H. Goldscheider, special deputy attorney general directing the grand jury probe of rackets and gambling, asked Judge Ganev to hold Singleton for criminal contempt for refusing to answer questions by the jury and disobeying order of the U. S. District court to do so.

Finnish Assets In U.S. Are Released

Washington, Nov. 30 (P)—Attorney General McGrath today announced a complete unblocking of Finnish assets frozen in this country during World War II.

The blocking action was taken against the U. S. properties of citizens of a score of friendly foreign countries in 1941 to prevent their possible use by enemy governments. These assets were progressively released after the war when individual investigation showed no enemy-taint in the properties involved.

Officials said today's order affects less than $1,000,000 mostly in accounts in New York banks.

China And Asia To Get Full Facts

Washington, Nov. 30 (P)—The "Voice of America" has made facilities available to the United Nations for broadcasts to China and other parts of Asia.

A State department announcement yesterday said west coast transmitters are being used to give China and Asia full coverage on United Nations developments.

Seven transmitters were turned over to the U. N. Tuesday and yesterday for several hours. Two relay transmitters at Honolulu increase the power of the broadcasts.

There are over 4,225,000 individual private owners of commercial forest lands in the United States, owning approximately 345 million acres.

HOG HORMONES WILL BE TRIED ON BALD PATES

Philadelphia, Nov. 30 (P)—A hog hormone credited with growing hair on white rats will be tested next week on humans.

The United Research laboratory of Philadelphia reported yesterday that three years of experiments on white rats showed "this hormone will grow hair where hair is supposed to grow."

Albert Roberts, president and technical director of the laboratory, is credited with developing the hormone. It cannot be purchased by private citizens.

Clinical tests on human will be conducted by several of the nation's leading dermatologists and gle between China and the democracies. The point of such a conflict, as you know, would be to bleed the western nations white, both militarily and economically, in preparation for a subsequent world war which would be launched at Russia's convenience.

Moscow is the driving force behind it all and she has no respect for anything but a "big stick."

endocrinologists, the 34-year-old executive said.

"Dematotropic Hormone"
Roberts calls his discovery the dematotropic hormone. He said it is taken from the pituitary gland located near the hog's brain.

"We can prove that this hormone grows hair," he said. "We have removed the hair on rats, which are equivalent in age to men 35 to 40 and have out it back."

"We produced baldness in rats by removing their pituitary gland. Then we have injected the hog hormone intramuscularly into the buttocks and hair grows within several days."

Not Available Commercially
Roberts said that every hair in a human has a life span of between two and six years, then it falls out.

"When new hair fails to grow in, you're bald," Roberts stated, adding: "The new dematotropic hormone activates the hair follicle and produces new hair."

"The hormone is removed from the hog and made into a powder and the powder combined with isotonic salt to form the solution which is injected," Roberts explained.

He said he has no idea when the hormone may be available commercially. His company manufactures hormones for sale to hospitals.

RENT CONTROLS UP FOR DEBATE

Washington, Nov. 30 (P)—A two-month extension of Federal rent controls beyond December 31 headed today for Senate debate with predictions it will be approved speedily.

The extension legislation cleared the Senate Banking committee late yesterday by a 10-2 vote. Chairman Maybank (D-S. C.) later predicted to reporters it would clear the Senate by a wide margin, adding:

"I am convinced that this is necessary so we can keep faith with the men who are fighting in Korea and their families."

The present law is due to expire December 31, except in communities which vote to keep them in effect to June 30. The resolution would set a February 28 expiration date, while leaving unchanged the community extension period.

President Truman had asked congress to extend the law for 90 days to permit a study of the rent situation by the new 82nd congress in the House, Chairman Spence (D-Ky.) has introduced a bill for a 90-day extension, but it has not been acted upon.

Senate Democratic Leader Lucas of Illinois told reporters he would call the resolution up for debate as soon as possible.

Harrisburg, Nov. 30 (P)—Pennsylvania's state fish hatcheries suffered only negligible damage from the storm last week-end.

By MAX HALL

Washington, Nov. 30 (AP) — The news from Korea has knocked this city back on its heels, and maybe the effect has been the same in your neighborhood.

Everywhere are solemn faces, and people saying, "Isn't it terrible?" "Yes, awful, isn't it? Where is it going to end?"

In a Washington department store, a clerk and a woman customer are deep in discussion of the war news, and other women come up, one by one, and stand quietly and listen.

In many a government office there is worried chattering about the crisis.

At the White House and elsewhere, men are wrestling with immense problems affecting the future of this country and the world.

President Truman, the man on whom the heaviest responsibility falls, consults with his chief advisers.

Between times, he finds time to attend parties. Tuesday he went to a luncheon for Attorney General McGrath. Tuesday night he and Mrs. Truman attended a party given by Senator and Mrs. Clinton Anderson (D-NM) at a private club.

Proposes Park For Noisy People Only

London, Nov. 30 (AP) — A national park for the sole use of noisy people was proposed today by Lord Horder, chairman of the British Noise Abatement League.

The rest of the population, he told the Royal Society of Arts, could then relax and get some sleep.

He said the park for noise only should provide all sorts of ways for "the most primitive citizens to let loose and make noises to their hearts' content."

One feature, he suggested, should be a race track for motorcycles and sports cars without mufflers.

RED CHINESE NOT GOING TO GIVE UP KOREA

By TOM OCHILTREE

Lake Success, Nov. 30 (AP)—The United States wants the U.N. Security Council to put on record the "conscience of the people of the world" in a show based on American charges of Chinese Communist aggression in Korea.

Making such a record is about all a majority of the council can hope to accomplish in view of the expressed attitudes of the Soviet and Chinese Red representatives. The Chinese Communists made it plain they had no intention of withdrawing from Korea.

Chief U.S. Delegate Warren R. Austin, in his speech before the council yesterday, foresaw a probable Soviet veto of a six-power resolution demanding that the Red soldiers of Mao Tse-tung get out of Korea.

No Veto In Assembly
A Soviet veto would clear the way for General Assembly consideration of the grave Korean problem. The veto does not apply in that 60-nation body, which recently armed itself with broad powers to discover and combat aggression when the Security Council is paralyzed.

Austin first suggested that the council meet through the night in an effort to reach a vote. He did not council on Tuesday, foresaw a probable veto until 3 p.m. Wednesday.

Informing the council that he had been told Russia would vote against the six-power resolution, Austin said: "If so, we understand that means a veto of the resolution. But, nevertheless, it represents the conscience of the people of the world."

Then he asked the Chinese Communist representative, Wu Han-Chuan, whether the Peking regime recognizes "the conscience of the people of the world as something that it ought to give weight to."

Wu, seated a few places away from Austin at the horseshoe-shaped table, answered American charges that the Chinese Communists were openly committing aggression in Korea by claiming that the United States was the aggressor there and had invaded Formosa.

Speaking in a high pitched voice, Wu followed closely the arguments the Soviet bloc has repeated over and over on the Korean and Formosan questions.

Made Poor Impression
A western delegation source said Wu's speech, his first in the U.N., had created the worst possible impression among non-Communist representatives. The informant added that the speech had these two immediate results: It has drawn the western countries closer together on the whole problem and has shown that Wu is not at Lake Success for conciliation. Some observers thought Wu had outdone the Russians in blasting the United States.

Wu said America was guilty of "cunning" aggression against Vietnam, the Philippines, Japan and other Asian countries as well as against China and Korea. He demanded that the Security Council

This proposal is: To drop other matters and take up the Alaskan Statehood bill, followed by the Hawaiian statehood bill.

The House approved both bills last March. President Truman has asked the Senate to do likewise, saying that prompt approval is essential to national security. But there is strong opposition.

If the Senate refuses, as seems likely, Hawaii and Alaska must start over in the new Congress and approval of both the House and Senate before they can add any more to the U.S. flag.

SAYS CHINESE INTERVENTION NEED NOT LEAD TO WORLD WAR

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

This fresh Chinese aggression in Korea could lead to a major war involving China, but it isn't necessarily the forerunner of another world conflict.

Undoubtedly China is acting with the blessing and advice of Moscow. However, Russia has been keeping carefully in the background ever since the Korean upheaval began. Russian-built warplanes and other military equipment have been appearing on the battlefields, but the Moscovites themselves have been standing aside.

The indications have been that Russia desired to avoid another global upheaval at this juncture. And there is no sign that the latest developments mean any change in her attitude.

Might Make Moscow Happy

It could well be that Moscow would be happy to see the Western powers, and especially the United States, become involved in a war with China while Russia sat on the sidelines.

Such a conflict would place a terrific strain on American economy and military strength and thus make the U.S.A. more vulnerable to it and when the world war came. So far as China is concerned, her millions of fighting men are expendable.

Right here we shall do well to note that when General MacArthur made his grave announcement that "we face an entirely new war" because of the Chinese invasion of Korea, "we" didn't refer exclusively to the United States. The general was talking about United Nations members other than those of the Communist bloc.

The Korean intervention is a United Nations affair—and let's not forget that item. America is one of this partnership. True, because of her greater resources she is carrying the major load. But this war

MACARTHUR MAY HAVE GAMBLED ON THE WEATHER

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

Fierce Chinese Communist counter-attacks have placed another grave hazard in the way of General MacArthur's big offensive to force a quick ending of the war.

Even before this surprising enemy assault, the commander-in-chief's expectation of getting our soldier boys home by Christmas had caused doubtful raising of military eyes. A month is a mighty short time to achieve victory and then ferry the lads back home across the vast Pacific.

The position in North Korea remains one rather forcibly of that in the mid-December of '44. Then our troops were near disaster as the result of a heavy enemy counter-attack over a forty mile front. But we withstood the powerful drive and then went on to win one of the great battles of American history.

Winter May Stop Drives

The U.N. commander in chief may have been making a shrewd gamble on the weather. Winter already is maneuvering to get its icy grip on Korea and, once it has succeeded, big scale military operations will be exceedingly difficult.

However, between the start of winter and the ice-bound days (which come in early December) there is a brief period in which troops can be moved and heavy fighting can take place. So it could be — and this is speculation on my part — that MacArthur has aimed at a quick knockout of the Chinese Communists in North Korea just before winter shuts in and makes it impossible for the Chinese in Manchuria to move further reinforcements across the Yalu river until spring arrives.

Should that happen it would indeed be the end of the military task given MacArthur. He could assign the guarding of the frontier to the South Koreans, and release at least some of the other U.N. troops.

Trying To Weaken U.S.

Fresh invasion of North Korea in force by Chinese Communists from Manchuria could come in the spring

— This tie, designed by Van Cleef and Arpels, Paris jewelers, consists of 70 carats of baguette and round diamonds and costs a quarter million dollars.

reported to be moving more than still, the question of what will happen next spring is among the imponderables.

For one thing there is no clear indication of just what the Chinese Communist leader, General Mao Tse-tung is aiming for. While he obviously has entered into a partnership with Moscow there is no sign that he wants a Chinese-American war.

Mao will join Moscow in helping weaken the U.S.A. and other western nations by induction, as in the Korean conflict. But it is unlikely he is looking for a duel with the world's most powerful nation.

The United States, for her part, has made it plain that she doesn't want trouble with China. Washington has been going out of its way to let Peking know that we desire peace.

The population of Europe averages 150 persons to the square mile.

DISASTERS HAVE TAKEN HEAVY TOLLS

By MAX HALL
Washington Nov. 30 (AP)—Congress started a short session Monday but the major domestic news of the week-end has not been political. Rather the big black headlines have had to do with disasters.

First, the nation was appalled by the sea-end collision on the Long Island Sound and one of the most terrible ship wrecks in American history.

Then, while the investigations of this accident were getting underway, the eastern third of the country was ravaged by one of the most cold-weather storms on record.

The day's toll of the storm has been a death toll of a big part of tenh, nearly 300 and the property of a big town.

Local Storm

It was an unusual storm not only in violence but in its character. Terrible wind battered the northern seaboard but it was not the northeast that got the brunt of it. It blew out of the east and south-east. The air was warm and there was no snow.

At the time the nation was mourning the victims of the Long Island Sound disaster, the region of western Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia. There the storm was a cold front rushing out of the north, northwest and west. The storm in this region took on the character of a blizzard. It was the worst blizzard since 1918. It killed 689 people and injured 1,000. It was the worst flood, in terms of deaths killed an estimated 2,200 people at Johnstown, Pa., in 1889. Though other floods have caused more widespread damage to property, this one was the worst.

Hurricanes Worst

Now the only sound left to defeat the storm, but the Weather Bureau says it was all the same storm.

The day's toll of the storm has been a death toll of a big part of low atmospheric pressure which moved up from the Carolinas and sucked air inward from various directions.

The storms that kill the most people in this country are not cold-weather storms at all. They are hurricanes and tornadoes. September is the height of the hurricane season, and May is the height of the tornado season.

The nation's worst death-dealing hurricane was the one that struck Galveston, Texas, in 1900, driving a huge wave out of the gulf. About 6,000 people died.

Worst Tornado In '25

The worst tornado was the tri-state tornado of 1925. It slashed a path through Missouri, southern Illinois and Indiana and killed 689 people.

The worst flood, in terms of deaths killed an estimated 2,200 people at Johnstown, Pa., in 1889. Though other floods have caused more widespread damage to property, this one was the worst.

Forest fires have been known to kill more than 1,000 people, and the San Francisco earthquake and fire of 1906 killed hundreds. But the greatest fire toll in a single building occurred in the Iroquois theater, at Chicago, in 1903, when 602 people were either burned or trampled to death.

Mt. Carmel, Pa., Nov. 30 (AP)—A ground settling has caused damage to 22 homes in this hard coal mining community. John Bishop, state mine inspector, said yesterday he is checking the possibility that abandoned coal mines under the town may be responsible for the cave-in.

The settlement is centered along East Seventh street where cracks occurred in at least three places in a one-block area. Cracks at least 12 inches wide appeared in the ground.

2ND DIVISION BEATS OFF RED SURPRISE DRIVE

By TOM LAMBERT
With U. S. Second Division, Korea.
Nov. 28 (Delayed)—A tired and shivering battalion of the Second Division struggled back to American lines early Tuesday after a surprise Chinese night attack.
One sergeant said the Reds worked their way close enough to the battalion "to drop hand grenades in our pockets" before launching the attack.
Despite the severity of the attack in freezing weather, Maj. "Butch" Barberis of Dover, N. J., said his battalion left behind "many good (dead) Chinese."

The Chinese hit Barberis' outfit frontally, forcing it to withdraw across the Chongchon river. Some American troops who waded the river walked into the lines with their feet and trouser legs "masses of ice," the major said.
Bugles Sweet And Clear
Barberis had three companies on the high ground on the east bank of the Chongchon "with remnants of another" when the Chinese struck about 11 p.m. Monday night. His battalion was about half a mile inland from the ice-crusted edges of the Chongchon.
"We got our first warning from a patrol we had sent out toward another battalion on our left," he said Tuesday. "The patrol got out 150 yards from our position when it ran into the Chinese."
The Chinese apparently were moving toward Barberis. On contacting the enemy patrol they unlimbered

Murphy Co. Issues Military Leaves

The G. C. Murphy company has reinstated its program of benefits for men and women entering military service, according to an announcement received from K. T. Paxton, vice president in charge of personnel.
Employees in military service will be carried on a military leave of absence. Upon reinstatement after discharge, all company benefits such as insurance, membership in the retirement plan, paid vacations, etc., will be reinstated as though the employee had continued working.

Separation pay will be granted based on length of service. Employees with four years or more service will receive four weeks' pay; those with three years but less than four—three weeks' pay; two years but less than three—two weeks' pay; and those with six months but less than two years—one week's pay. Departing employees will receive pay in full for all unused vacation earned during the year in which leave begins.
Employees entitled to share in Christmas and other bonus arrangements will be paid a pro-rata share of such bonus based on number of months worked during year military service begins. Group insurance to be continued for a period of 120 days.
A "News Letter" will be sent periodically to all employees in military service.

SANTA CLAUS IS AMERICAN

Reykjavik, Iceland, Nov. 30 (AP)—To many Icelandic children Santa Claus is an American. This is particularly true in and around the Keflavik Airport which is operated by Americans. During the war American soldiers held Christmas parties for the local children with big successes and the habit was kept by the civilians who took over the base.

How To Grow Poinsettias

This typical and beloved Christmas ornamental is easy to grow under average home conditions. Not only can the old plant be kept over for another year but prunings may be used to propagate numerous new plants. How to take care of the Christmas specimen and general cultural recommendations for handling poinsettias around the year are condensed into a handy guide of our readers. # KOREAN CRISIS SPEEDS WORLD ARMS PROGRAM

By JOHN M. NIGHTOWER
Washington, Nov. 30 (AP) — Secretary of State Acheson's declaration that the free world must "prepare for the worst" heralds an administration drive to speed an even greater arms program in both the U. S. and Western Europe.

Officials said today that will be the government's initial response to the new global crisis created by Communist China's intervention in the Korean conflict.

The gravity of that crisis was pointed up by Acheson's warning to the nation and the world last night that "no one can guarantee that war will not come."

Linked to this immediate danger, Acheson pictured the free world as being under dark threat of Soviet military power with great "capabilities for conquest and destruction."

"The intention of free men, he said, is to preserve their institutions by peaceful means but history has proved that 'if we must, we will fight for them.'"

"We must hope and strive for the best while we prepare for the worst," he declared in a speech delivered from his office to the National Council of Churches of Christ in America, meeting at Cleveland, and broadcast by radio and television. He had canceled plans to go to Cleveland because of the crisis.

Acheson himself called for the arms speedup which appeared to be in the making. He declared that

Former Countess Likes Dairy Farm

Abbottford, B.C., Nov. 30 (AP) — Once a member of the French underground and twice sentenced to death by the Germans, the former Countess de Dampierre—now Mrs. Lloyd Moore—is enjoying life on a dairy farm near here. She was first married to Count de Dampierre, who fought in the French army until France fell and then returned home to join the underground with his wife. He failed to survive torture by the Gestapo, dying in a boxcar on his way to exile in Poland.

The former countess was also captured and was shunted from prison to prison. She managed to escape the firing squad twice and survived torture rather than give away her friends. She finally escaped from a bus carrying her to Poland and managed to stay out of the enemy's reach until her country was liberated. Two years later she met and married Moore, at the time serving with the American army at the Nuremberg trials. They came here in 1948.

WPA BASS HEARD AGAIN
Salt Lake City, Nov. 30 (AP)—The city parks commission turned over a bass fiddle to a group of amateur singers. The instrument had been collecting dust since the 1930s. It had not been used since a WPA orchestra was disbanded.

the only test of defense preparations is whether they are adequate to meet the danger the free world faces.

MacArthur Criticism
There was little direct comment from congressional leaders on Acheson's speech. But three Republican senators—Wherry, of Nebraska; Bricker, of Ohio, and McCarty, of Wisconsin—accused the secretary of trying to oust Gen.

Douglas MacArthur as commander of U. N. forces in Korea. In his speech, Acheson did not hint at any criticism of MacArthur.

The three senators gave their views in separate interviews. The State Department is reported to have advised the White House that urgent steps toward a greater defense mobilization are necessary. In his 4,500-word address, Acheson dealt with both the long-range dangers posed by Russia and the immediate threat of what he termed the "brazen aggression" of the Chinese Reds in Korea.

Paints Dark Picture

Linked to this immediate danger, Acheson pictured the free world as being under dark threat of Soviet military power with great "capabilities for conquest and destruction."

The intention of free men, he said, is to preserve their institutions by peaceful means but history has proved that "if we must, we will fight for them."

"We must hope and strive for the best while we prepare for the worst," he declared in a speech delivered from his office to the National Council of Churches of Christ in America, meeting at Cleveland, and broadcast by radio and television. He had canceled plans to go to Cleveland because of the crisis.

Acheson himself called for the arms speedup which appeared to be in the making. He declared that

Former Countess Likes Dairy Farm

Abbottford, B.C., Nov. 30 (AP) — Once a member of the French underground and twice sentenced to death by the Germans, the former Comtesse de Dampierre—now Mrs. Lloyd Moore—is enjoying life on a dairy farm near here. She was first married to Count de Dampierre, who fought in the French army until France fell and then returned home to join the underground with his wife. He failed to survive torture by the Gestapo, dying in a boxcar on his way to exile in Poland.

The former countess was also captured and was shunted from prison to prison. She managed to escape the firing squad twice and survived torture rather than give away her friends. She finally escaped from a bus carrying her to Poland and managed to stay out of the enemy's reach until her country was liberated. Two years later she met and married Moore, at the time serving with the American army at the Nuremberg trials. They came here in 1948.

WPA BASS HEARD AGAIN

Salt Lake City, Nov. 30 (AP) — The city parks commission turned over a bass fiddle to a group of amateur singers. The instrument had been collecting dust since the 1930s. It had not been used since a WPA orchestra was disbanded.

the only test of defense preparations is whether they are adequate to meet the danger the free world faces.

MacArthur Criticism
There was little direct comment from congressional leaders on Acheson's speech. But three Republican senators—Wherry, of Nebraska; Bricker, of Ohio, and McCarty, of Wisconsin—accused the secretary of trying to oust Gen.

Douglas MacArthur as commander of U. N. forces in Korea. In his speech, Acheson did not hint at any criticism of MacArthur.

The three senators gave their views in separate interviews. The State Department is reported to have advised the White House that urgent steps toward a greater defense mobilization are necessary. In his 4,500-word address, Acheson dealt with both the long-range dangers posed by Russia and the immediate threat of what he termed the "brazen aggression" of the Chinese Reds in Korea.

2ND DIVISION
BEATS OFF RED
SURPRISE DRIVE

By TOM LAMBERT
With U. S. Second Division, Korea, Nov. 28 (Delayed)—A tired and shivering battalion of the Second Division struggled back to American lines early Tuesday after a surprise Chinese night attack.
One sergeant said the Reds worked their way close enough to the battalion "to drop hand grenades in our pockets" before launching the attack.
Despite the severity of the attack in freezing weather, Maj. "Butch" Barberis of Dover, N. J., said his battalion left behind "many good (dead) Chinese."
The Chinese hit Barberis' outfit frontally, forcing it to withdraw across the Chongchon river. Some American troops who waded the river walked into the lines with their feet and trouser legs "masses of ice," the major said.
Bugles Sweet And Clear
Barberis had three companies on the high ground on the east bank of the Chongchon "with remnants of another" when the Chinese struck about 11 p.m. Monday night. His battalion was about half a mile inland from the ice-crusted edges of the Chongchon.
"We got our first warning from a patrol we had sent out toward another battalion on our left," he said Tuesday. "The patrol got out 150 yards from our position when it ran into the Chinese."
The Chinese apparently were moving toward Barberis. On contacting the enemy patrol they unlimbered

Departing employees will receive pay in full for all unused vacation earned during the year in which leave begins.
Employees entitled to share in Christmas and other bonus arrangements will be paid a pro-rata share of such bonus based on number of months worked during year military service begins. Group insurance to be continued for a period of 120 days.
A "News Letter" will be sent periodically to all employees in military service.

SANTA CLAUS IS AMERICAN

Reykjavik, Iceland, Nov. 30 (AP)—To many Icelandic children Santa Claus is an American. This is particularly true in and around the Keflavik Airport which is operated by Americans. During the war American soldiers held Christmas parties for the local children with big successes and the habit was kept by the civilians who took over the base.

How To Grow Poinsettias

This typical and beloved Christmas ornamental is easy to grow under average home conditions. Not only can the old plant be kept over for another year but printings may be used to propagate numerous new plants. How to take care of the Christmas specimen and general cultural recommendations for handling poinsettias around the year are condensed into a handy guide of our readers. # CHRISTMAS EVE IN OLDTIME FINLAND

The Christmas Eve bath was quite a tradition in Finland before the advent of modern plumbing.

The oldtime Finnish bathroom was usually a three-room hut; one room was used for steaming and scrubbing, one for rubbing, and one for dressing.

The hut was warmed by a stone oven, heated for hours before the scheduled bath, and the "bathroom" was really steaming. After bathing came the rub-down and the switching of the body with birch twigs to increase the circulation, topped off by a roll in the snow, supposedly to whet the appetite for Christmas Eve supper.

For supper there was usually stockfish and prune tarts to be enjoyed, plus the traditional barley porridge in which cream and sugar and almonds were mixed.

Tests of Strength
After supper the boys and men matched their strength; while the girls—garbed in the men's work clothes—blackened their faces and stole away to visit other homes in cognito and "see Christmas." The girls never spoke nor accepted food, but went from house to house merely to watch the festivities.

And when the evening's festivities were over, the smaller children made their beds in the clean straw spread on the floor in commemoration of the Christ Child.

New "Virgin" Cult Being Investigated

Aior Star, Malaya, Nov. 30 (AP)—A new, strange cult known as the "Seven Hours" (virgins) is being investigated by the government of Perlis state in northern Malaya. A committee of 11 religious leaders is inquiring into what's behind the cult which seems to promise virgins to all who remain faithful to its principles.

The organizer of the cult is said to have come from abroad, possibly from Arabia. Tuan Haji Ahmad, president of the state religious council, said leaders of the cult were committing criminal offenses by victimizing the poor and illiterate and asking followers to "surrender their property to the cult."

Shipload Of Tires For Chinese Reds

San Francisco, Nov. 30 (AP)—More than 750 tons of old automobile tires awaited shipment to Communist China ports here today. Customs officials said the tires would be stripped before loading in such a manner that they could not again be used on automobiles.

Collector of Customs Paul Leake said the tires would be used for shoes.

The tires were consigned to the Red ports of Taku Bar and Tientsin, China, and the British colony of Hong Kong and Manila, P. I.

Leake said local customs officers have plugged several technical loopholes through which Chinese Communist forces may have been supported by American supplies while fighting United Nations troops in Korea.

Moslem Pilgrims Are Ill Housed

Singapore, Nov. 30 (AP)—Moslem pilgrims to Mecca have to put up with dark, stuffy rooms, totally inadequate sanitary arrangements, lack of ambulances and doctors, a Malayan Federal Conciller charged on his return from Mecca.

Tuan Sheikh Ahmad asserted "as every pilgrim paid $56 to the Saudi Arabian Government, it should be the duty of that government to provide sanitary comforts." He added this was a matter for the respective Moslem governments to appeal to the Saudi Arabia Government.

Says Gas May Top Oil As U.S. Fuel

Berkeley, Calif., Nov. 30 (AP)—Natural gas may soon be more important than oil in the United States, says James J. Parsons of the University of California. He estimates that six trillion cubic feet were taken from the ground in 1949. Known gas reserves are bigger than oil reserves, he says.

In 1949 the marketed production of gas increased 12 percent with eight per cent reduction in oil and 28 per cent reduction in coal.

Mother Asks For Records By Zimmer

Philadelphia, Nov. 30 (AP)—Ten years ago Tony Zimmer was a promising young saxophonist in Larry Clinton's orchestra. Then Tony went off to war.

For a long time Tony was listed as missing in action in the South Pacific. Finally, in October, 1945, he was found. Tony decided he could never resume his musical career, and so he stayed in the Army.

The other day, an American Legion post which had been collecting records for the Armed Forces radio station at Valley Forge general hospital received this letter from Mrs. M. G. Freiler, of Langhorne, Pa.:

"If in your collection any of Larry Clinton's records featuring Tony Zimmer turns up, I should be glad to give two new records of your own choosing for each of Clinton's."

"Tony Zimmer will never make another record. He entered the service . . . my collection was lost in a fire. I surely would like to locate some bearing his name. I am his mother."

DIPLOMAS TO EAT
Tel Aviv, Nov. 30 (AP)—Foreign diplomats shall eat better, the Israel Foreign Office has decreed. Even if they pay in restaurants in local currency only, they will be served meaty "non-austerity meals" as now offered to tourists from other countries who pay in foreign currency.

LAST REQUEST . . . Christmas came early last year for Gerald Washburn, 8, of Seattle. He was brought from his sickbed to sit with Santa Claus for a special visit before he entered a hospital to undergo surgery for a brain operation.

rency only, they will be served meaty "non-austerity meals" as now offered to tourists from other countries who pay in foreign currency.

British Smokers Giving Up Pipes

London, Nov. 30 (AP)—Britons, from Bond street gentlemen to gruff Cockney dockworkers, are laying aside the pipes which once were closely linked to their way of living. An ounce of tobacco costs 56 cents, seven cents more than a pack of 20 cigarettes. So more men are smoking cigarettes.

The men who make and sell pipes and tobacco are highly disturbed. They've formed the national pipe smoking conference from representatives of associations of retail tobacconists, pipe and pipe tobacco manufacturers and other allied industries.

Aluminum Walls For Skyscraper

New York, Nov. 30 (AP)—Cast aluminum panels are taking the place of brick facing in enclosing New York's newest skyscraper, a 24-story structure at 655 Madison avenue.

Reflective insulation in connection with the air-conditioning of the building is one of the purposes. Modern appearance is another.

Louis Katz, the builder, says 60 tons of aluminum, acquired before the freeze, are being used.

Will Do Research In Malaya Religion

Singapore, Nov. 30 (AP)—Dr. Paul B. Means, professor of religion at the University of Oregon, is the first American to receive an award under the Fulbright Act to do research work in Malaya during the 1950-51 academic year at the University of Malaya.

Dr. Means spent 10 years as a missionary in Malaya and Sumatra before World War II. He has been engaged for several months in a study of changes in religious thought in Southeast Asia and in furthering a literacy campaign in Malaya.

AUSTRALIAN TROUBLES
Sydney, Nov. 30 Nov. 30 (AP)—Australian migrants from Europe who appear on Sydney's beaches in French-style bathing costumes, or undress in the open are causing beach inspectors concern. Inspectors say, in most cases, the new Australians have protested that in the countries from which they came they had been accustomed to such habits.
It is less likely to snow in very cold weather because cold air does not hold much water vapor.
Hail storms may cause several times as much damage in the U. S. as tornadoes in a year.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

I Have A "Close Squeak"!

Spent last Saturday morning wandering all over the house. Wherever I went—upstairs or down—I kept hearing a "squeak." Couldn't find out where it was coming from until noon-time when the missus came home from her weekly shopping.

"Listen," I says to her, "hear that squeak?" I started walking real quiet-like across the kitchen and there it went again! "Joe Marsh," she laughs, "that is nothing but your suspender clips rubbing back and forth when you walk!" And darned if it wasn't!

From where I sit, I'd been letting a little thing become a serious problem. Like some little difference of opinion or taste will start off a great big argument. I may prefer a temperate glass of beer with my dinner—while the missus likes tea—but we figure that no two people have exactly the same likes and dislikes. So, why get all "het up" about it?

The moral is, check your suspenders—and check your temper when it comes to little things.

SAYS 8TH ARMY ATTACK SAVED YANK FROM TRAP

U. S. Eighth Army Headquarters, Korea, Nov. 30 (AP)—Lt. Gen. Walton H. Walker said in a statement last night "the assault launched by the Eighth Army five days ago probably saved our forces from a trap which might well have destroyed them."

The Eighth Army chief returned from Tokyo where he and Maj. Gen. Edward Almond, commander of the 10th Corps, were summoned Tuesday night for an urgent conference with General MacArthur.

MacArthur made a statement similar to Walker's in a special communique Tuesday.

Walker's statement said: "Had we waited passively in place, the 200,000 Chinese troops thrown against my lines would have increased within a short time to double that strength. From beyond the Yalu (river) they would have undoubtedly brought the 200,000 additional Chinese troops known to be assembled there."

"We naturally had hoped to find at least some semblance of truth in the public assurances of the Chinese Communist authorities that no formal military intervention had been perpetrated. However, only by assault tactics could the actualities have been finally developed."

"In my opinion this saved my army from possible destruction. The timing of our attack to develop the situation was indeed most fortunate."

East Berlin

East Berlin—John G. Myers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Myers, has returned to his classes as a sophomore at Penn State college after spending the Thanksgiving vacation with his parents.

Mrs. Ira Myers, R. 2, spent Friday in York.

Miss Mary Jacobs, who has had a librarian's position in Baltimore, spent the Thanksgiving holidays at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mervin D. Jacobs, Sr., R. 2.

Jacob Weigand, R. 2, is recuperating after his recent treatment at the West Side Osteopathic hospital where he was taken after he caught his hand in a corn sheller, mangle three fingers so badly that they had to be amputated. For a time, the elderly farmer was in a serious condition because of a kidney complication which developed, but he is now much improved.

Quite serious damage was reported in several cases following the severe wind storm of Friday night. The top of the apple tree at the home of Mrs. Curtis W. Deatrick, south of town, was severed, and roots were badly damaged at the Gentzler Grain and Feed warehouse, the R.I. barn on the John S. Baker place, and the home of Charles S. Myers, R. 2, slightly west of the borough line. The recently erected sign at the Kline Grocery market and the recruiting sign at the post office were blown from their fastenings. Part of a fence, a portion of the roof and some trees were harmed at the Samuel E. Baker farm, near Mummert's Meeting house.

The Misses Eulahe and Evelyn Kuhn returned by motor Sunday to their Brooklyn, N. Y., home after spending the Thanksgiving holidays with their sister and niece, Mrs. Augustine J. Tierney and Miss Bettie Tierney.

Miss Ethel Crook, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Crook, R. 2, was awarded a turkey as a prize in a contest conducted shortly before Thanksgiving.

Dr. Wilbur Wire, Spring Grove physician, has been a hospital patient. Dr. Wire is the husband of the former Miss Miriam Shelter, this place.

CHRISTMAS EVE IN OLD TIME FINLAND

The Christmas Eve bath was quite a tradition in Finland before the advent of modern plumbing.

The oldtime Finnish bathroom was usually a three-room hut; one room was used for steaming and scrubbing, one for rubbing, and one for dressing.

The hut was warmed by a stone oven, heated for hours before the scheduled bath, and the "bathroom" was really steaming. After bathing came the rub-down and the switching of the body with birch twigs to increase the circulation, topped off by a roll in the snow, supposed to whet the appetite for Christmas Eve supper.

For supper there was usually stockfish and prune tarts to be enjoyed, plus the traditional barley porridge in which cream and sugar and almonds were mixed.

Tests of Strength

After supper the boys and men matched their strength: while the girls—garbed in the men's work clothes—blackened their faces and stole away to visit other homes, incoherent and "see Christmas." The girls never spoke nor accepted food, but went from house to house merely to watch the festivities.

And when the evening's festivities were over, the smaller children made their beds in the clean straw spread on the floor in commemoration of the Christ Child.

New "Virgin" Cult Being Investigated

Alor Star, Malaya, Nov. 30 (P)—A new, strange cult known as the "Seven Hours" (virgins) is being investigated by the government of Perlis state in northern Malaya. A committee of 11 religious leaders is inquiring into what's behind the cult which seems to promise virgins to all who remain faithful to its principles.

The organizer of the cult is said to have come from abroad, possibly from Arabia. Tuan Haji Ahmad, president of the state religious council, said leaders of the cult were committing criminal offenses by victimizing the poor and illiterate and asking followers to "surrender their property to the cult."

The South American hoatzin bird can climb trees before it can fly.

Shipload Of Tires For Chinese Reds

San Francisco, Nov. 30 (P)—More than 750 tons of old automobile tires awaited shipment to Communist China ports here today. Customs officials said the tires would be shipped before loading in such a manner that they could not again be used on automobiles.

Collector of Customs Paul Leake said the tires would be used for shoes.

The tires, were consigned to the Red ports of Taku Bar and Tientsin, China, and the British colony of Hong Kong and Manila, P. I.

Leake said local customs officers have plugged several technical loopholes through which Chinese Communist forces may have been supported by American supplies while fighting United Nations troops in Korea.

Moslem Pilgrims Are Ill Housed

Singapore, Nov. 30 (P)—Moslem pilgrims to Mecca have to put up with dark, stuffy rooms, totally inadequate sanitary arrangements, lack of amusements and doctors, a Malayan Federal Councillor charged on his return from Mecca.

Tuan Sheik Ahmad asserted "as every pilgrim paid $56 to the Saudi Arabian Government, it should be the duty of that government to provide sanitary comforts." He added this was a matter for the respective Moslem governments to appeal to the Saudi Arabia Government.

Says Gas May Top Oil As U.S. Fuel

Berkeley, Calif., Nov. 30 (P)—Natural gas may soon be more important than oil in the United States, says James J. Parsons of the University of California. He estimates that six trillion cubic feet were taken from the ground in 1949. Known gas reserves are bigger than oil reserves, he says.

In 1949 the marketed production of gas increased 12 percent with eight per cent reduction in oil and 28 per cent reduction in coal.

Mother Asks For Records By Zimmer

Philadelphia, Nov. 30 (P)—Ten years ago Tony Zimmer was a promising young saxophonist in Larry Clinton's orchestra. Then Tony went off to war.

For a long time Tony was listed as missing in action in the South Pacific. Finally, in October, 1945, he was found. Tony decided he could never resume his musical career, and so he stayed in the Army.

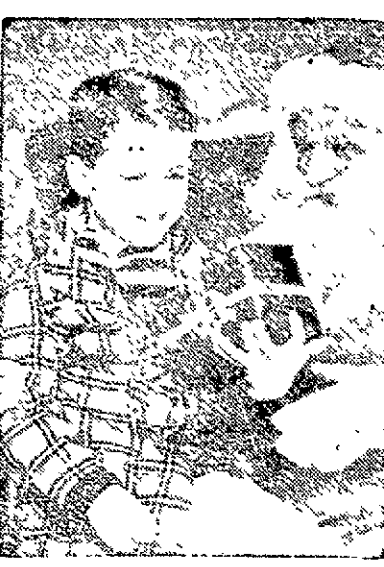

The other day, an American Legion post which had been collecting records for the Armed Forces radio station at Valley Forge general hospital received this letter from Mrs. M. G. Fiedler, of Langhorne, Pa.:

"If in your collection any of Larry Clinton's records featuring Tony Zimmer turns up, I should be glad to give two new records of your own choosing for each of Clinton's."

"Tony Zimmer will never make another record. He entered the service... my collection was lost in a fire. I surely would like to locate some bearing his name. I am his mother."

DIPLOMAS TO EAT

Tel Aviv, Nov. 30 (P)—Foreign diplomats shall eat better, the Israel Foreign Office has decreed. Even if they pay in restaurants in local currency only, they will be served meaty "non-austerly meals" as now offered to tourists from other countries who pay in foreign currency.

LAST REQUEST... Christmas came early last year for Gerald Washburn, 8, of Seattle. He was brought from his sickbed to sit with Santa Claus for a special visit before he entered a hospital to undergo surgery for a brain operation.

rency only, they will be served meaty "non-austerly meals" as now offered to tourists from other countries who pay in foreign currency.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

I Have A "Close Squeak"!

Spent last Saturday morning wandering all over the house. Wherever I went—upstairs or down—I kept hearing a "squeak." Couldn't find out where it was coming from until noon-time when the missus came home from her weekly shopping.

"Listen," I says to her, "hear that squeak?" I started walking real quiet-like across the kitchen and there it went again! "Joe Marsh," she laughs, "that is nothing but your suspender clips rubbing back and forth when you walk!" And darned if it wasn't!

From where I sit, I'd been letting a little thing become a serious problem. Like some little difference of opinion or taste will start off a great big argument. I may prefer a temperate glass of beer with my dinner—while the missus likes tea—but we figure that no two people have exactly the same likes and dislikes. So, why get all "het up" about it?

The moral is, check your suspenders—and check your temper when it comes to little things.

Joe Marsh

British Smokers Giving Up Pipes

London, Nov. 30 (P)—Barons, from Bond street gentlemen to gruff Cockney dockworkers, are laying aside the pipes which once were closely linked to their way of living. An ounce to tobacco costs 56 cents, seven cents more than a pack of 20 cigarettes. So more men are smoking cigarettes.

The men who make and sell pipes and tobacco are highly disturbed. They've formed the national pipe smoking conference from representatives of associations of retail tobacconists, pipe and pipe tobacco manufacturers and other allied industries.

Aluminum Walls For Skyscraper

New York, Nov. 30 (P)—Cast aluminum panels are taking the place of brick facing in enclosing New York's newest skyscraper, a 24-story structure at 635 Madison avenue.

Reflective insulation in connection with the air-conditioning of the building is one of the purposes. Modern appearance is another.

Louis Katz, the builder, says 60 tons of aluminum, acquired before the freeze, are being used.

ASK REPORT ON TICKET SALES

On Saturday, December 2, there will be a public dinner served in the cafeteria of the Littlestown Junior-Senior high school, and a food sale and bazaar conducted in the music room adjoining the cafeteria. The affair is under the auspices of the Woman's Community club of Littlestown and vicinity. All proceeds from the affair will go to buy new uniforms for a band of more than seventy members which now has only forty-five uniforms.

Dinners will be served family style from 11:30 a.m. until 8 p.m. and will cost $1.25 for adults and 65c for children. Mrs. Richard A. Little, treasurer of the club, has asked that club members report to her on the number of tickets sold and the money received thus far.

Food donations to be prepared for the dinner would be appreciated. The dinner menu is as follows: tomato juice, turkey, filling, mashed potatoes, sauer kraut, sweet potatoes, peas, pickles, beets, cranberry sauce, carrots and celery and fruit and cake.

Some suggestions for the bazaar and food sale contributions include: Crocheted, knitted or embroidered items, children's garments, aprons, any other needlework or handcraft, and items suitable for Christmas giving or decorating, and cakes, pies and candy. If your donation is to be sold at the bazaar or food sale, kindly suggest for what price it should be sold.

Donations which are perishable (turkeys, cakes, pies and candy) will be accepted Friday afternoon or Saturday morning. Persons wishing to donate perishables should notify one of these people: Mrs. Charles Welkert, 21 West King street, Littlestown, phone 79-R; Mrs. Leonard L. Potter, 58 Maple avenue, Littlestown, phone 144-M; Mrs. Marvin Breighner, Kump apartments, Littlestown, phone 9-R.

A banquet was served Tuesday evening to the Sunday school class taught by Mrs. Walter Groce and "The Friendship Circle" class, taught by Mrs. Lloyd Humpert of St. Paul's Lutheran church. The turkey banquet was served in the social hall of the church by the Starr Bible class. The invocation was given by Mrs. David S. Kammerer. Mervin Fuss, Taneytown, was the speaker. He was introduced to the group by the Rev. David S. Kammerer, pastor of the church. Mr. Fuss gave a resume of his visit

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

As we get older, stress and strain, over-exertion, excessive smoking or exposure to cold sometimes slows down kidney function. This may lead many folks to complain of nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness. Getting up nights or frequent passages may result from minor bladder irritations due to cold, dampness or dietary indiscretions.

If your discomforts are due to these causes, don't wait, try Doan's Pills, a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. While these symptoms may often otherwise occur, it's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

Cinema Managers At Charm School

London, Nov. 30 (AP) — British movie mogul J. Arthur Rank has opened a charm school to turn his movie managers into perfect gentlemen. Starting from the bottom in the boiler room—25 fledgling managers are learning the niceties of separating the customers from their shillings graciously in a suburban Rank movie house that has been turned into a combination school and dormitory. It's a 24-week course. Besides learning how to stoke a boiler and keep a theater at a comfortable temperature, embryo managers will have a crack at: Cleaning door handles and polishing windows; vacuuming the carpets; peddling ice cream speedily during intermissions so that it gets to the customer before it starts to melt; handling an usherette's torch so that it doesn't flash in the eyes of the patrons.

Browning Chapel Is Dedicated

London, Nov. 30 (AP) — Poetry lovers now can go to church amid relics of Robert Browning. A Browning chapel, furnished with his study table as an altar, his chair, and other items from the Venetian home where he died, has just been dedicated at St. Marylebone parish church. The parish includes Wimpole Street, where Browning lived and from where he courted Elizabeth Barrett. The building of the chapel was supported by John Masefield, Britain's poet laureate, the Poetry Society of Great Britain, and ten Browning societies in the United States. Kansas has had more recorded tornadoes than any other state, according to the National Geographic Society.

APPLE TREE BORER CONTROL

The flat-headed apple tree borer, the round-headed apple tree borer, and the shot-hole borer attack apple trees throughout the northern and eastern parts of the United States. In addition they occasionally ravage other fruit trees and ornamental shrubs and shade trees. Below are a few facts about these three pests to enable readers to recognize them and to practice effective combat measures.

As its common name indicates, the flat-headed apple tree borer is easily recognized by a broad, flat enlargement immediately back of its head, giving it the distinctive appearance which wins it its name. It is light yellowish or yellowish-white, legless, and about one inch long when fully grown. In almost all cases it is found embedded in the inner bark and outer wood in a U-shape. Invariably this borer attacks apple trees which are in a weakened condition from neglect, lack of feeding, drought or other causes.

Inasmuch as young trees are often more seriously damaged by this enemy, trunks of newly planted apple trees should be wrapped with heavy paper or burlap. The latter material is preferred because it helps to prevent undue transpiration of moisture at the same time. The wrapping should be in place soon after apple blossoming time and be kept intact as many years as possible. Or, if a wide board is driven vertically into the ground on the south side of a newly planted tree, the shading will discourage the adult beetles from laying their eggs.

The round-headed borer attacks apple trees at all ages but particularly trees from 3 to 10 years old which have not been sprayed. The larva is a white, footless grub, with brown head and black jaws. It measures almost 1½ inches in length when fully grown. It does not transform into an egg-laying beetle for three to four years, the time varying somewhat throughout the region of infestation. Individual borers may be killed in their tunnels by inserting a phial wire, by cutting the pests out, or by injecting carbon disulfide or a mixture of carbon disulfide and paradichlorobenzene. Usually this work of combat should be done in late August in this latitude and then all overlooked borers taken care of the next spring.

Both the flat-headed and round-headed borers can be kept under a fair degree of control and often completely repelled by the profitable process of maintaining maximum tree vigor. Such tree health can be insured by proper fertilization, careful pruning, burning all prunings promptly, irrigation in times of prolonged drought or providing for soil moisture by planned maintenance of organic matter, and by applying the full program of protective sprays each spring.

The shot-hole borer is a common pest of apple, peach and other fruit trees. It gains its common name from the characteristic holes it makes where it enters and leaves the bark. This enemy is so numerous and troublesome that the editor will devote an entire article to it later. At this time advice may be limited to the suggestion that DDT is promising effective control in tests made by Pacific northwest orchardists. A 50-per cent wettable powder form is recommended at the rate of 1 pound to 50 gallons of water or 5 level teaspoonsful to 1 gallon. The trunk and larger limbs are wet with the spray during the period when the egg-laying beetles are present

Littlestown

ASK REPORT ON TICKET SALES

On Saturday, December 2, there will be a public dinner served in the cafeteria of the Littlestown Junior-Senior high school, and a food sale and bazaar conducted in the music room adjoining the cafeteria. The affair is under the auspices of the Woman's Community club of Littlestown and vicinity. All proceeds from the affair will go to buy new uniforms for a band of more than seventy members which now has only forty-five uniforms.

Dinners will be served family style from 11:30 a.m. until 8 p.m. and will cost $1.25 for adults and 65c for children. Mrs. Richard A. Little, treasurer of the club, has asked that club members report to her on the number of tickets sold and the money received thus far.

Food donations to be prepared for the dinner would be appreciated. The dinner menu is as follows: tomato juice, turkey, filling, mashed potatoes, sauer kraut, sweet potatoes, peas, pickles, beets, cranberry sauce, carrots and celery and fruit and cake.

Some suggestions for the bazaar and food sale contributions include: Crocheted, knitted or embroidered items, children's garments, aprons, any other needlework or handcraft, and items suitable for Christmas giving or decorating, and cakes, pies and candy. If your donation is to be sold at the bazaar or food sale, kindly suggest for what price it should be sold.

Donations which are perishable (turkeys, cakes, pies and candy) will be accepted Friday afternoon or Saturday morning. Persons wishing to donate perishables should notify one of these people: Mrs. Charles Weikert, 21 West King street, Littlestown, phone 79-R; Mrs. Leonard L. Potter, 58 Maple avenue, Littlestown, phone 144-M; Mrs. Marvin Breighner, Kump apartments, Littlestown, phone 9-R.

A banquet was served Tuesday evening to the Sunday school class taught by Mrs. Walter Groce and "The Friendship Circle" class, taught by Mrs. Lloyd Humpert of St. Paul's Lutheran church. The turkey banquet was served in the social hall of the church by the Starr Bible class. The invocation was given by Mrs. David S. Kammerer. Mervin Fuss, Taneytown, was the speaker. He was introduced to the group by the Rev. David S. Kammerer, pastor of the church. Mr. Fuss gave a resume of his

to the biennial convention of the United Lutheran Church in America, which was held in Des Moines, Iowa. Mrs. Lloyd Humpert was toastmistress of the evening and the Rev. Mr. Kammerer was song leader. "What A Friend We Have in Jesus," class song of "The Friendship Circle" class, was sung by the fifty persons present and the program was closed by singing of "America."

The Littlestown Homemakers held their semi-monthly meeting on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Wolfe, Two Taverns. Miss Mary Jane Mickey, Adams county home economics extension representative, was unable to attend due to the weather conditions preventing her return from Ohio. A project to be displayed with the other county units at the Y.W.C.A. in Gettysburg was made by the eleven members present. The project was a "Sugar box" train with cars of Christmas Greetings of surrounding towns.

A group composed of Mrs. William Lippy, Mrs. Paul E. King, Mrs. Frank King, Mrs. Alvin Groft and Mrs. Dale Starry of the Littlestown Homemakers went to Gettysburg on Wednesday afternoon to view the projects at the Y.W.C.A. Mrs. Lippy had part in the program. She gave a talk on "How to Entertain at Christmas."

The next meeting of the Homemakers will be held December 12 at the home of Mrs. Cletus Bair, near Littlestown. Attaching zippers will be the subject discussed. This will be the Christmas meeting and gifts will be exchanged.

The visitors for the Kingdom Roll Call to be conducted on Sunday afternoon for the members of Redeemer's Evangelical and Reformed church met at 8 p.m. on Wednesday evening in the social hall of the church to make further plans for the Sunday visits. A film, "The Church Is There," was shown and a brief talk, "The Needs Of The Church," was given by the pastor, the Rev. Frank E. Reynolds. Refreshments were served to the twenty-four men present.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

As we get older, stress and strain, over-exertion, excessive smoking or exposure to cold sometimes slows down kidney function. This may lead many folks to complain of nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness. Getting up nights or frequent passages may result from minor bladder irritations due to cold, dampness or dietary indiscretions. If your discomforts are due to these causes, don't wait, try Doan's Pills, a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. While these symptoms may often otherwise occur, it's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief — help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

Cinema Managers
At Charm School

London, Nov. 30 (AP) — British movie mogul J. Arthur Rank has opened a charm school to turn his movie managers into perfect gentlemen. Starting from the bottom in the boiler room—25 fledgling managers are learning the niceties of separating the customers from their shillings graciously in a suburban Rank movie house that has been turned into a combination school and dormitory.

It's a 24-week course. Besides learning how to stroke a boiler and keep a heater at a comfortable temperature, embryo managers will have a crack at:

Cleaning door handles and polishing windows; vacuuming the carpets; peddling ice cream speedily during intermissions so that it gets to the customer before it starts to melt; handling an usherette's torch so that it doesn't flash in the eyes of the patrons.

Browning Chapel
Is Dedicated

London, Nov. 30 (AP) — Poetry lovers now can go to church and relish the poetry of Robert Browning. A Browning chapel, furnished with his study table as an altar, his chair, and other items from the Venetian home where he died, has just been dedicated at St. Marybone parish church. The parish includes Wimpole Street, where Browning lived and from where he courted Eliza beth Barrett.

The building of the chapel was supported by John Massfield, Britain's poet laureate, the Poetry Society of Great Britain, and ten Browning societies in the United States.

Kansas has had more recorded tornadoes than any other state, according to the National Geographic Society.

NEW HOUSEHOLD SECURITY TAX LAW EXPLAINED

By MAX HALL

Washington, Nov. 30 (AP)—Some people are getting a bit wild-eyed over paying social security taxes on household workers next year. It's not so much the money they must pay as the mathematics and red tape involved.

One housewife was heard to exclaim: "I know I'd never be able to figure it out! I do believe I'll have to let my maid go!"

Now just relax, lady. A group of government officials had a press conference yesterday and explained what has to be done by all concerned. And it really isn't so bad. If you have in your regular employ a household worker (maid, laundress, housekeeper, cook, nursemaid, gardener, furnace man, valet, chauffeur, and the like) you should do certain things.

First, send your name now—or as soon as you can—to the collector of internal revenue in your district and tell him you employ a household worker.

Easy Way Shown

The easiest way to do this is to visit a post office and pick up a small blue booklet entitled "Do You Have A Maid?" It contains a postcard that you can fill out and mail. This puts you on the mailing list. After you get on the mailing list, you will receive a larger pamphlet giving details of the program.

Next year, at three-month intervals, you must send to the collector an amount equal to 3 per cent of the cash wages you have paid the worker during the preceding quarter. Half of this payment is obtained by deducting 1½ per cent from the wages every pay day, starting in January. You provide the other half yourself. Or, if you want to, the law says you may provide the whole 3 per cent out of your pocket.

First Payment April 1

An example: Suppose you have a part-time maid and pay her $15 a week. You deduct 1½ per cent each week, or 22½ cents. (To take 1½ per cent of an amount, multiply it by .015.) You add 22½ cents to this. That makes 45 cents a week you must pay the government. But you don't pay it until the end of the quarter. Since there are 13 weeks in a quarter, your quarterly

GREYHOUND ON PIKE

Harrisburg, Nov. 30 (AP)—The Pennsylvania Greyhound Lines, Inc., was authorized today to extend its bus service over the eastern extension of the Pennsylvania turnpike from Middlesex to King of Prussia. The Public Utility commission granted the authorization after turning down a motion by Homer W. Werner of Phoenixville to dismiss Greyhound's application.

payment will be $5.85. Your first payment must be made by April 30, for the January-February-March quarter.

Not all household workers will be covered by social security. You send no tax on a worker unless you have paid the worker at least $50 in the quarter, and unless she (or he) has worked for you on some portion of at least 24 different days in that same quarter, or 24 days in the quarter just before it. That means about two days a week.

If you are a household worker, your only task is to get a social security card.

Suncheon, Korea

Dear Sir:

I receive your paper and am sure glad to get it. It helps me to keep up with the news back home. I enjoy reading it very much. Over here a soldier enjoys reading most any paper he can find from different states and towns.

I want to thank you people or whoever is responsible for having the Times sent to me. I see where there is a lot of boys from my home town being called back to service again. Things over here seem fairly good. We are advancing very fast now. My only hope is that it is over very soon.

I know that you people and all the rest of the town folks are doing their best back home now. We are doing our very best over here now. I hope the weather at home is not too cold. We are having cold weather and rainy weather at the present time.

Farther up north they are fighting in the snow and it sure is cold too. Well so much for the news over here. I will give you a little background of myself now. I went into the army November 3, 1944. I stayed in for 2½ years before I was discharged. I was with the 7th Infantry Division in Korea then. I joined them in Manila and stayed with them.

I left them August 12, 1946, and was discharged October 22, 1946. I re-enlisted on December 23, 1947, and went to Fort Dix, N. J., and left for Korea on February 24, 1948. I was there with the 72nd Engineer Combat Company of the 5th R.C.T. then. We left Seoul, Korea, and landed in Schofield Barracks July 1st, 1949. I left Schofield April 21, 1949, for a 60-day furlough.

I met a very charming young lady while I was home on furlough. We plan to be married when I return home. After I left home off my furlough I was to report to Fort Lewis, Wash., and then return to Pusan, Korea, and have been here ever since then. I left July 22, 1950, and got over here August 5, 1950.

I have been to Korea three times now and I hope it is my last time. I hope to return home soon, and come around to see all the members of the press then. Well I have told you of some of my travels and of my future.

I must say again thanks a million for sending me the paper. I hope to keep getting it till I return home. With all my luck and good wishes for a Happy Thanksgiving and a Merry Xmas.

Your dear reader,
Sgt. James R. Jeffcoat.
P. S.: I was promoted from corporal to sergeant on the 3rd of August, 1950.

Built Apartment House of Concrete

New York, Nov. 30 (AP)—Reinforced concrete is taking the place of the usual steel skyscraper skeleton in the construction of a 20-story luxury apartment project on New York's East River front near the United Nations headquarters. The $7,000,000 structure for 390 families will be New York's first building of this height to be constructed entirely of concrete, according to Paul Tishman, the builder. A two-level underground garage will take 200 automobiles off the street. All living rooms and master bedrooms with large windows facing the river, will be five-sided rooms.

GETS VOTERS

Swift Current, Sask., Nov. 30 (AP)—The Civic Voters association donated $35 in prizes to school pupils making the closest estimate of the number of civic votes cast. A contestant had to prove his parents voted, and the result was nearly 1,000 more votes than usual.
